(PUSHYA 12, SAKA ERA 1882).

In pursuance of Reserve Bank of India's letter referred to in paragraph 2 of the preamble, sanction is hereby accorded for the transfer of cash transactions of Doddaballapur Sub-Treasury in Bangalore District to the local branch of the State Bank of Mysore. The appointed date for transfer of cash work to the Bank is fixed as 23rd January 1961, as desired by the Bank.

2. The special steps to be taken on the eve of the conversion of the Sub-Treasury into a Banking Sub-Treasury and the classes of cash transactions to be taken over by the Bank are detailed in Annexure 'A' to this order.

3. On and after the appointed date, the branch will conduct the cash business of the Sub-Treasury and render daily accounts to the Sub-Treasury Officer in the manner laid down in the rules in the Mysore Treasury Code and in the compilation of the Central Treasury Rules.

4. For the conduct of such of the cash transactions as will continue to be handled at the Sub-Treasury, a permanent advance of Rs. 2,000 (Rupees two thousand only) is sanctioned. The amount may be drawn by the Sub-Treasury Officer from the Bank on a simple receipt. The expenditure out of the imprest should be recouped daily, the connected receipts, if any, being remitted to the Bank and the amount paid being drawn from the Bank, separately, for each class of transactions.

Should a demand be presented at the treasury which cannot be met out of the balance of the permanent advance, the Treasury Officer may draw the extra amount required from the Bank on a payee's receipt indicating the purpose for which money is required and furnishing a pay order thereon.

5. The normal cash balance fixed for this Sub-Treasury should be treated as withdrawn with effect from the appointed date, i.e., 23rd January 1961, and the normal balance fixed for the District as a whole reduced correspondingly.

6. The District and Sub-Treasury Officers should follow strictly any instructions that the Accountant General may issue in the matter.

7. Proposals should immediately be made by the Deputy Commissioner to the Government in the Finance Department in regard to the disposal of the staff of the Sub-Treasury becoming surplus, if any, in consequence of these arrangements.

8. The Guards required for guarding the chest in the Bank premises may be provided by the Inspector General of Police, if required by the Bank under the usual terms.

9. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to make adequate arrangements to effect the transfer on the 23rd January 1961 under report to Government in the Finance Department. He is also requested to see that the changes are effected smoothly and the maximum convenience and guidance are afforded to the Departments and the general public in the first few days to obviate inconvenience to them.

10. The Deputy Commissioner is also requested to depute an official experienced in Banking Treasury work to the Sub-Treasury for about a week to enable the staff to become familiar with the new arrangement.

11. New forms and registers required at the Sub-Treasury for immediate use should be spared from the District Treasury and an indent placed with the Director, Government Printing and Stationery, for future supply.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

N. S. BHARATH,

Copies of standing instructions, if any, in the assignment, drawing or P.D. Accounts, together with the correspondence pertaining to stopped cheques, etc., should also be forwarded to the Bank on or before the 'appointed date'.

In Government Order dated the 15th March 1960 read above, instructions for utilisation of accumulation of Sports and Reading Room Funds in various High Schools and Middle Schools in the State were issued. The Director of Public Instruction has stated that orders contained in Government Order read above do not clearly indicate that they are also applicable to Middle Schools. He has, therefore, requested that necessary amendment may be issued to the Government Order to the effect that the provisions of Government Order are also applicable to Middle Schools in the State.

2. The Director of Public Instruction has further stated that in anticipation of Government approval, instructions have been issued by him to all Deputy Directors of Public Instruction of Divisions and District Educational Officers in the State informing them that the Government Order read above will equally apply to the utilisation of accumulated Sports and Reading Room Funds in Middle Schools also. In the circumstances, he has requested Government to approve of the action taken by him.

3. With regard to submission of quarterly statements to Government, as indicated in para III (c) of the Government Order, the Director of Public Instruction has stated that there are 4,463 Middle Schools (including Senior Basic Schools and New Type Middle Schools) and 707 High Schools in the State and it may not be possible for his office to collect the information from all the schools in the State and send quarterly statements to Government as required. He has, therefore suggested that the Inspecting Officers concerned viz., District Educational Officers in the case of Middle Schools and the Deputy Directors in the case of High Schools, may be permitted to review the progress of expenditure in the schools under their jurisdiction and that the Deputy Director of Public Instruction may be allowed to pass general remarks on the position in the schools in the district as a whole in the case of Middle Schools and that the Director of Public Instruction may be permitted to review the progress of expenditure in each division as a whole and to send a general report annually to Government in the month of May (i.e. after the close of the school year) in respect of each Division as a whole. The Director of Public Instruction has stated that he has instructed all the Inspecting Officers in the State on the lines as suggested by him and has requested Government to approve of his action in this regard.

Regarding the prohibition of construction of structure near or in the vicinity of protected or unprotected ancient monuments and sites in the State.

CIRCULAR

No. ED 19 TAM 60, DATED BANGALORE, THE 25TH OCTOBER 1960
(KARTHIKA 3, SAKA ERA 1882).

The Government of India have brought to the notice of this Government that a Rest House for Tourists has been built near a Protected Monument in this State. In the interest of the preservation of important National and State Monuments, it is desirable and necessary to prevent indiscriminate construction of structures which either curtail the utility or value of these monuments or tend to undermine their importance or historical or archæological value and significance or even to hasten their disintegration.

2. The Deputy Commissioners of Districts and Officers of the Public Works Department are requested to consult invariably the Director of Archæology in Mysore in all cases where buildings or constructions are proposed very near or within the premises of Protected or Unprotected Monuments and Archæological sites. Such a work could be taken up only with the consent of the Director of Archæology, who, if deemed necessary, shall obtain the orders of Government in the Education Department.

3. If the works contemplated affect any Protected National or Regional Monument in the State, then the Deputy Commissioner and the Executive Engineer concerned will have to first take up the matter with the Director of Archæology in Mysore, for deciding the question in consultation with Government of India, when necessary, whether such construction should be permitted.

4. Government wish to impress upon all the officers concerned, the importance of preserving intact, all the monuments and sites which are noted for their historical, archæological and artistic importance as the case may be, which form part of a priceless heritage of the country. These instructions should be scrupulously adhered to, in order to prevent injudicious construction of any structure in the premises or the vicinity of such a site or monument which affect their beauty, obstruct their view and otherwise adversely affect them in any way.

5. In the case of disagreement between the Director of Archæology and Officers of other Departments, specific orders of Government in the Administrative Departments concerned should be sought for by the latter officers, before starting any construction work. In such cases the said Departments shall consult the Education Department invariably.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

V. P. VENKATARAMAIAH,

Education Department*

GOVERNMENT OF INDIAMINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY
(Branch Secretariat)

Bombay 26th December 1960.

PRESS NOTE*Unauthorised PowerloomsRevised Policy for Registration.

The Government of India's policy regarding regularisation of the large number of unauthorised powerlooms in different parts of the country was announced in a press note issued on 5th November 1960. The principal condition for the issue of permits to the owners of such looms with a view to save them from the consequences of prosecution for contravening the Textile Control Orders was that a fee of Rs. 500 was payable for each powerloom acquired or installed before 31st October 1960, without a permit or registration certificate from the Textile Commissioner.

2. Several representations have been made to Government that this fee of Rs. 500 per powerloom acquired and installed without permission was too heavy to be borne by the numerous owners running their looms on a small scale for their livelihood, particularly the owners of the tape and ribbon looms run on a cottage industry basis. On a careful review of the position, the following decisions of Government are announced :—

(1) All powerlooms, including a pedal loom run with a small horse-power motor attached, producing wearable and non-wearable fabrics, acquired or installed on or before the 31st October 1960, without a permit under the Textile Control Orders, will be regularised by the issue of permits by the Textile Commissioner, on applications made to him in the prescribed form, which should be accompanied by a Treasury Challan for a fee of Rs. 100 (one hundred) per powerloom. This fee might be paid in a lumpsum along with the application or in three instalments, Rs. 50 being paid with the application and Rs. 25 at the end of the first and second quarters respectively.

(2) Powerlooms producing tapes, ribbons and newar acquired or installed before 31st October 1960 without a permit from the Textile Commissioner will be issued permits on applications made to him along with a fee of Rs. 25 (Rupees twenty five) per tape/ribbon/newar loom to be paid in lumpsum with the application.

(3) Persons who acquired or installed powerlooms before 31st October 1960 but had not put them into operation for one reason or the other, are permitted to apply for registration enclosing a certificate by the Collector of the District or the Local Superintendent of Excise certifying the existence of the loom before that date, in the possession of the applicant.

(4) No installation of any new powerloom shall be permitted even though the person may have applied to the Textile Commissioner before 31st October 1960, for permission to install it and had refrained from doing so.

(5) The applications for registration should be accompanied by an Excise Licence. The Excise Authorities have been requested to issue such licences even though the applications for such licences were made after 31st October 1960, provided the Excise Authorities were satisfied that the looms had been in existence before that date. In cases where the excise licences were issued in the names of persons other than the owners, the applications should be accompanied by a certificate from the Excise Authorities that the looms have been in the possession of the owners.

(6) The time permitted for making applications for registration according to the press note issued earlier has been extended till the 15th March 1961.

(7) Applicants who had submitted applications before 31st October '96, for registration of looms which were in their possession before 30th November 1956, and who have not been given registration certificates for want of satisfactory evidence about the existence of the loom before 30th November 1956, shall also submit fresh applications again, with the fees prescribed at (1) and (2) above. If it was established that the looms had been in existence prior to 30th November 1956, the excess amount would be refunded.

(8) Applications in regard to powerlooms in existence before 30th November 1956, made after the 31st October 1960, should be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 100 or at least by the first instalment of Rs. 50 and, in the case of a tape, ribbon or newar loom, by a fee in full of Rs. 25 per loom; and if it was established that the loom had been in existence prior to 1956, the excess amount over Rs. 10 would be refunded.

(9) No application for the sale of newly registered looms shall be entertained for a period of two years from the date of issue of permit by the Textile Commissioner.

(10) Powerlooms acquired or installed before 31st October 1960, and in respect of which no application for registration is received by the Textile Commissioner in accordance with the above conditions before 15th March 1961, and powerlooms acquired without prior permission from the Textile Commissioner after 31st October 1960, shall be sealed by the authorities empowered to do so under the Textile Control Orders.

3. The Government of India wish to reiterate that the regularisation of the unauthorised powerlooms by the issue of permits is only by way of protection from prosecution of the owners for having contravened the Textile Control Orders. No new powerlooms are permitted to be installed in future.

This has been issued with the approval of the Textile Commissioner.

T. S. RAMASWAMI,
Under Secretary (Coordination).

OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT ENGINEER AND IRRIGATION OFFICER, KORATAGERE SUB-DIVISION, KORATAGERE.

Notification dated 9th December 1960.

Subject :—Supply of water under Tumbadi-New Tank, Koratagere Taluk.

In accordance with the powers vested under Section 15 (a) (ii) of chapter IV of the Irrigation Act, 1932 and as amended from time to time. It is hereby informed for the information of all the atchkatdars under Tumbadi-New Tank, Koratagere.

(1) As per the block System accepted by the atchkatdars the available water in the said tank will have to be allowed for wet irrigation from January 1961 to June 1961 to the I Block only. Since the Concession was given to the lands under II block during the corresponding period of 1960.

(2) Now that the total depth of available water in the said tank as on December 1960 being 14½ feet with 150 unit capacity is not sufficient for summer paddy irrigation of 1961 for all the 283 Acres 11 Guntas under the I Block.

(3) It is therefore decided that the available water in the tank will be given to three (3) months khariff dry crops (Such as Car Ragi, Jawar, and Groundnuts, etc.), (ಮುಂಗಡದ ರಾಗಿ, ಜವಾರ, ನೆಲೆಮೆ ನೆಲೆಮೆ, ಮಡು, ತೇನು ಮಡು ಇತ್ಯಾದಿ) for the entire atchkatdars under I Blocks for the reason mentioned in Para 2 above.

The Sluice therefore be opened on 15th of March 1961 and will be closed on 15th of June 1961.

The Concerned atchkatdars are therefore requested to prepare their lands for growing dry irrigated crops only as enumerated in para 3 above and not for cropping paddy as usual.

It is therefore presumed that the atchkatdars of I Block will utilise water for dry crops only from March 15th to June 15th.

Under any circumstances the period prescribed will not be altered. If sufficient water is received in the Tank, Block system for summer paddy Irrigation will continue from 1962, as agreed in the atchkatdars meeting held by the undersigned on 6th December, 1960.

Asst. Engr. and

Copy of Circular letter No. SC (A)-4 (45)/60, dated 17th. October 1960, from Shri M. C. Misra, Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Steel, Mines and Fuel (Department of Iron and Steel), New Delhi, to all State Governments.

Sub.:—Allocation of steel for the Second-Half Year, 1960-61 (October-1960—March 1961).

I am directed to say that in view of the anticipated increases in indigenous production of steel in the coming months, Government have decided that the existing procedure for acquisition and distribution of steel, should be further liberalised. It has accordingly been decided that the issue of quota certificates for the purpose of placing indents on Iron and Steel Controller, will be dispensed with for actual users, registered stockists and controlled stockists for the following categories with effect from the 1st October 1960.

- (i) Blooms and billets (other than re-rollable billets)
- (ii) Tested and untested bars
- (iii) Rods
- (iv) Heavy structurals
- (v) Heavy rails
- (vi) Light rails
- (vii) Second class rails
- (ix) Plates
- (x) Black sheets and hot rolled Strips of 14 gauge and thicker
- (xi) Spring steel
- (xii) Hoops and strips
- (xiii) Steels
- (xiv) Fishplates.

2. For the above items, indents can be placed on the Iron and Steel Controller to the full extent of their demands by all concerned. It would be the endeavour of the Iron and Steel controller to plan the indents on the producers to the full extent possible. However, to enable the Iron and Steel Controller to exercise scrutiny on the reasonableness of the quantities indented for, it has been decided that actual users should, in their indent furnish the following particulars:—

(i) The quantity and categories of steel outstanding on 1st October 1960.

(ii) Categories and quantities for which quota certificates had been issued to the indenter in the previous two half years; and

(iii) The purpose for which the steel, in question, is required for October, 1960 to March 1961, period.

3. As far as steel processing industries are concerned, in addition to the above data, particulars are also to be furnished on (i) the capacity of the factory, (ii) the production during the last two half yearly periods, and (iii) the stocks on hand.

In cases where there is a large increase between the quantity indented for, for October, 1960 - March 1961 period, and the previous half yearly allotments, the reasons for such increases, i. e., a new unit going into production, etc., may be furnished. Where necessary, Iron and Steel Controller will consult the Sponsoring Authorities concerned, in the matter.

4. In respect of categories expected to be in short supply, viz., thinner gauge (above 14 G) sheets and wire allocations will be the same as during the last half years, i. e., April-September 1960, period. The exact tonnage in each category not exceeding which the indents might be sent/quota certificate issued, will be communicated by the Iron and Steel Controller separately. As in the last period, Government Departments, statutory bodies, like

Port Trust, Municipalities, etc., may place their indents on Iron and Steel Controller within the allotments without quota certificate. Such indents should be accompanied by a certificate stating that:—

(i) The total tonnage mentioned in the indent correspond to the allotments received by the Department from the sponsoring/Co-ordinating Authorities;

(ii) The materials mentioned in the indent are required for execution of projects covered by requisite financial sanctions:—

In cases where Government/Semi-Government Department desire to draw materials from or through the Controlled Stockists, the requisitioning Department may place their indent supported by the above mentioned certificates, on the stockists of their choice. Such indents should be signed by the competent officer under his seal to avoid drawal of material by unauthorised persons.

The existing system of issue of quota certificates will continue for all other users for thinner sheets and wire, except Government and semi Government Departments mentioned above. These users should submit their indents to Iron and Steel Controller, duly accompanied by quota certificates.

5. According to the revised procedure, all those who require in wagon loads, can indent directly without quota certificates on the Iron and Steel Controller, in respect of categories other than thinner sheets and wire. But the requirements of others requiring small quantities will have to be met, as at present, by the Controlled or registered stockists. It has, therefore, been decided that Controlled stockholders and registered stockholders may also place indent on the Iron and Steel Controller in respect of categories other than sheets and wire without quota certificates. The Registered stockists/controlled stockists, in their indents, should indicate (i) the stocks on hand, (ii) the allotments given to them by the State Government/the quantity booked by them duly backed by quota certificates in the last two half yearly period for these categories, and (iii) their requirements for October 1960-March 1961, period.

The indents received from the registered stockists/controlled stockists will be accepted and planned by the Iron and Steel Controller on producers. In planning the indents, Iron and Steel Controller, will take into account the purpose for which the steel in question, is required and the priority accorded to the demand. Thus core project indents, export Promotion indents, etc., will continue to get priority in planning.

6. Registered stockholders will continue to report to the State Steel licensing authority, the details of arrivals of stocks against the indents and sell the materials against permits issued by the State Authorities concerned, as at present.

7. The Controlled stockholders, on receipt of stocks, will first supply against the orders already booked by them accompanied by quota certificates. After completing all outstanding orders booked against quota certificates for the category in question, may sell the steel on arrival to their customers against the indents booked by them for October 1960-March 1961 period.

8. As all the State Governments are aware, the new Steel plants, will produce steel only in metric sections. Even existing plants are rolling some items according to the metric standards. The indenters should, therefore, in their own interest, place indents for both inch sections as well as the corresponding, metric sections (Standardised by the Indian Standards Institution) acceptable to them. The Iron and Steel Controller and the Producers will have the right to change the indent placed in inch sections either at the stage of planning or at the stage of booking the orders.

9. The time-table for the issue of quota certificates placement of orders, etc., in respect of the allotments for the current half-year (October 1960-March 1961) and further detailed instructions will be communicated by the Iron and Steel Controller direct to all authorities concerned, along with the intimation regarding the allotments of sheets and wire.

10. A copy of a press note issued in this connection, is enclosed.

9 Cocoons selected for preparation of seed shall be spread in trays, one layer deep.

10 Mysore seed cocoons preserved in each lot for preparation of seed shall not be more than 40,000 and foreign race seed cocoons shall not be less than 35% of the Mysore seed cocoons depending on the quality of the Foreign Race cocoons used.

11 The room where seed cocoons are preserved shall be airy and well ventilated and optimum temperature maintained in such a room.

Lots revealing pebrine should not be preserved for seed and such cases should be brought to the notice of the Officers of the Department and such lots steamed and later disposed for reeling as per rules.

13 Selection of cocoons shall be made in such a manner that the emergence in both the races of cocoons preserved for seed shall synchronise. Seed cocoons to be consigned in Cold Storages for delaying emergence, should be consigned for the shortest safe periods and in no case cocoons of pure Mysore race should be consigned.

14 Seed cocoons shall be kept in the Refrigerator or removed from the Refrigerator during cool hours of the day.

15 Proper temperature for refrigerating seed cocoons shall be between 42°F and 45°F.

16 Cocoons, immediately after they are removed from the Refrigerator, shall be spread out in trays in the grainage and kept in darkness so that they may recover to room temperature and that moths do not cut out immediately.

17 Only good sorted and disease-free cocoons shall be refrigerated.

18 Cocoons mounted on different dates shall not be mixed up and kept in the refrigerator.

II Emergence of Moths.—

1 When moths emerge male moths which, generally emerge earlier shall be picked out as and when they emerge and kept separately in trays to prevent copulation.

4 Female moths which are ill-developed, or which have an abnormally large abdomen or whose wings are not fully developed or shrivelled up, shall not be used.

5 In case, moths of foreign race cocoons emerge earlier and if the moths of the Mysore race have not emerged the foreign race male moths shall be kept in the Refrigerator to keep them alive.

7 Moths should not be placed overcrowding and shall be spread in perforated tin trays or paper packets.

8 Moths, after removal from the refrigerator shall be kept in warm place by stages so that they may regain activity early and be fit for copulation with female moths.

9 After selection of moths in the manner indicated above the female and male moths may be brought together in a tray and allowed to pair.

10 The pairs shall be picked out from the trays and kept inside the cellules arranged on the egg sheets and kept in a dark place. Care shall be taken to see that the pairs are not separated while transferring them to the cellules.

11 The paired moths shall be kept together for not less than three hours.

12 Male moths once used for pairing shall again be used subsequently if need be only after giving some rest preferably in a Cold Storage.

13 After the period of pairing is over the male moths shall be carefully and gently separated from the females and the female moths allowed to lay eggs within the cellules.

III Preparation of Layings.—

1 The female moths after copulation shall be arranged in rows on the egg sheets, allowed to lay eggs within the area occupied by cellules.

2 The egg sheets with layings issued from each licensed grainage shall bear an identification mark, including the licence No. which should not be changed once adopted.

3 The pierced cocoons collected after the emergence of moths is over should be dried and stocked separately away from the grainage.

4 Not less than 20 % of smears from moths that have laid in each lot under preparation in a grainage at random shall be examined under the microscope.

5 Microscopic examination shall be started not earlier than 2 full days after oviposition and shall be completed before the layings are to be sold.

6 Moth examination should be conducted in a room which would admit proper light.

7 Stains of moths should be examined in the same order in which the eggs are laid by the concerned moth and whenever any disease is detected should be noted accordingly.

8 The following particulars shall be entered in each egg sheet.

- (i) Name of the Grainage and Licence No.
- (ii) No. of egg sheet.
- (iii) Lot No. and date and month.

9 If the Examiner finds any Pebrine spores or bacteria he shall indicate the mark P or F as the case may be in the particular column in the Examination Card against the number of preparation or in the egg sheet.

10 In case the Pebrine spores are noticed the entire layings prepared in the lot will have to be destroyed.

11 As the Examiner finishes the examination of any slide, he will place them in a light solution of formaline and wash them before use. Similarly the crushing sets, pestles etc., should be washed every time, after a moth is crushed and tested and before another moth is crushed in the same mortar with a pestle.

12 The Examiner be the licensee, or his employee should sign with date the records maintained for testing.

13 The slides and cover glasses when used shall be washed with running water.

14 Layings which are to be rejected shall be removed with the help of scissors or scalpel.

15 Rejected layings shall be burnt before the selected layings are sent out for distribution.

16 At the time of moth examination and after the examination is over, necessary entries shall be made in the Layings Preparation Register.

17 Immediately after the examination and after the rejections are removed from the egg sheets, selected layings meant for distribution shall be dipped in a 2 % formaline solution and dried in shade.

18 The egg sheets after they are dried can be distributed. Distribution should as far as possible be in the cool hours of the day and should be covered by bills.

19 Immediately after the preparation of layings in one lot is over the appliances viz., Crushing Sets, Glass, Cellules, etc. shall be washed with 2 per cent formaline before they are used for the next lot.

20 If there is no demand for silk worm seed prepared by the Licensed Seed Preparer the layings can be refrigerated in the Refrigerator or the Cold Storage to delay hatching.

21 Refrigeration of layings shall be made in the following manner.

(a) Cross bred disease free layings shall be refrigerated for a period not exceeding 20 days with safety to resulting worms if they are kept in the Refrigerator between 36 to 48 hours after laying.

(b) It is unsafe to over-refrigerate disease free layings beyond the maximum safe period indicated.

(c) Age of eggs shall be calculated from 10 P.M. on the day when moths are paired and separated for purposes of egg laying as large majority of the eggs in the layings are laid before this hour, after separation of moths in the noon the same day.

(d) Eggs shall, generally be stored in the Refrigerator and removed from the Refrigerator after 6 P.M. or in the cool hours of the day.

(e) The temperature for refrigeration of silk worm eggs shall be between 38° F and 42° F.

(f) Egg sheets shall be spread evenly in the refrigerator without piling up.

(g) On no account egg sheets shall be rolled up and kept in the refrigerator as this prevent cold air from permeating evenly all over the eggs.

22 Egg sheets, after removal from the Cold Storage, shall be spread out for 2 or 3 hours to allow the eggs to recover to the normal environment.

23 Eggs prepared out of refrigerated cocoons should not be generally refrigerated.

IN THE MATTER OF AN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE BETWEEN THE
WORKMEN AND THE MANAGEMENT OF CIRCLE LUNCH HOME,
BASAVANAGUDI, BANGALORE-4.

Industry : Hotel

District : Bangalore.

AWARD.

1. The Government of Mysore in their Order No. LLH 512 LLD 59, dated 3rd December 1959 referred an industrial dispute existing between the workmen and the management of Circle Lunch Home, Bangalore-4, to this Labour Court for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. XIV of 1947).

2. The points of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference are as follows :—

1. Is the management justified in terminating the services of the following workmen with effect from 16th June 1959?

Sriyuths—

1. Ranga	...	...	Cleaner,
2. Narayana Rao	...	...	Supplier,
3. Raju	...	...	Cleaner,
4. Sanjeeva	...	...	Cleaner,
5. Govinda	...	...	Cleaner,
6. Venkatesh	...	...	Store-keeper,
7. Velu	...	...	Supplier, and
8. Ram	...	...	Cleaner.

2. Are the workmen justified in demanding that the above workmen be reinstated with full compensation for the entire period of involuntary unemployment? If not, to what relief, if any, are the affected workmen entitled to?

3. The Order of reference was taken on the file of the court and summonses were issued to the parties as usual. Both the parties put in their appearance and filed their respective statements.

4. The substance of the claim statement is that the management of the II party hotel terminated the services of the workmen whose names have been scheduled in the order of reference with effect from 16th June 1959. This termination is unjust, illegal and has been done with ulterior motives with a view to harass and victimise the workers for their trade union activities. The workers had joined the Union and they had submitted a demand notice to the management for higher wages, leave facilities, etc. Hence the management wanted to get rid of the workmen. The said workmen are entitled to be reinstated with back wages.

5. The second party in its counter statement has contended that there was no industrial dispute existing between the parties. The management had terminated the services of Sri Narayana Rao on 15th June 1959 for his unsatisfactory work. Being aggrieved the other workers absented themselves from attending the work on 16th June 1959 and onwards. There were no employees by name Govinda and Rama in employment of the second party hotel. The workers are not entitled to any of the relief prayed for.

6. On the pleadings the following issues have been added to the points of dispute which have been taken as issues framed.

1. Is there no industrial dispute in existence between the parties?
2. Is the union authorised to represent the cause of the workers of II party?
3. Is the reference valid in law?

7. This is a case wherein the Government of Mysore have referred an industrial dispute, existing between the workmen and the management of Circle Lunch Home, on the points of dispute as scheduled therein. The disputes that have been referred, in between the same parties, are three in number. The present dispute relates to the termination of the services of eight workmen Sriyuths Ranga, Narayana Rao, Raju, Sanjeeva, Govinda, Venkatesh, Velu and Ram.

8. Both the parties have filed their respective statements and the management of Circle Lunch Home has alleged 'inter alia' that there existed no industrial dispute and that issue has been heard and decided on 10th May 1960, holding that there existed and still exists an industrial dispute between the parties. Such objection had been raised in all the three cases and a common evidence had been adduced by both the parties and a common order has been passed. That order has been made a part of the award (Vide annexure No. 1).

9. Now I shall take up the merits of the case. This is a case wherein it has been alleged by the Union that the management terminated the services of the workers as scheduled in the order of reference from 16th June 1959. Whereas the management has said in its counter that the services of Sri Narayana Rao, supplier had been terminated on the 15th June 1959 for his unsatisfactory work and he had put in the service of six months. Therefore as per Section 74 (1) of the Shops and Establishment Act no enquiry was necessary. Regarding other workers except Govinda and Rama it has been contended that they absented themselves and did not attend the work on the 16th and onwards of June 1959. Therefore, the management had to substitute the recruits. Hence the order of reference should be rejected.

10. Regarding Govinda it has been said that he was a casual worker and his services were not terminated. Therefore, the question of his reinstatement did not arise. As per Rama, the contention of the management was that it did not employ such man by name Rama. Further it has been also asserted that there was no such worker by name Velu, but it was Venu who had been employed by the management.

11. Both the parties have filed the documents and also examined some witnesses. Regarding Ranga, Narayan, Raju, Sanjeeva and Venkatesh the management has admitted that they were the employees. In respect of Velu it is said that there was a worker by name Venu, but not Velu. I had gone through the holiday-cum-wage register and therein I found no name of Govinda and Rama. In the month of October and November 1958 the name of Govinda appears and thereafter there is no such reference of his name being mentioned in the holiday-cum-pay register. I therefore delete the names of Govinda and as well the name of Rama. This name regarding Rama no mention has been made throughout the registers for the years 1958-59 and 1959-60. The name of Venu, as far as I think, that it has been mis-typed as Venu, but the witnesses on behalf of the union have said that it was Velu. I therefore include this name among others for my consideration. Thus there remain the names of Ranga, Narayana, Raju, Sanjeeva, Venkatesh and Venu. It has been already said that the management has admitted that they were the employees. Narayana Rao the supplier was terminated on the 15th June 1959 and the rest on the subsequent date of 16th June 1959. The reasons assigned for the termination of Narayana Rao and others on the respective dates are that the work of Narayana Rao was not satisfactory and so many warnings had been issued to him, but he did not improve himself and therefore his services were terminated. For the rest the contention was that they themselves deserted the work and went away.

12. Before entering into the merit or demerit of the testimonies of the witnesses of both the parties it would be better to give a brief sketch of the relationship that existed between the management and the workers. Earlier to the said events the management had terminated the services of three workers. Further that the union had submitted a notice of demands for fixing the minimum wages and providing the other amenities such as annual leave and dresses. It had also complained to the Inspector of Shops and Establishment about extracting work for more than eight hours and non-providing the holiday-books and so on. The proprietor has himself admitted the fact that he had received a notice of demands on 22nd May 1959 and he has also admitted in his deposition that the Inspector of Shops and Establishment had visited the hotel and there was a complaint lodged by him against the proprietor.

13. The representative for the union has asserted that the proprietor was displeased for the reason that the workers of the second party hotel had taken the efforts to get the reasonable amenities provided under the Labour legislation. They had also submitted the demands. The Inspector of Shops and Establishment had taken the prosecution against the management. All these things had made the proprietor displeased and on those grounds the proprietor had started to victimise and harass the workmen. As its result the management terminated all these workers en masse and they had been removed from the hotel by force.

14. I shall now take up the evidence of the management. The proprietor has examined Ningoji Rao, Narayanappa, Yagna-narayana, Manjanatha and the proprietor himself M. Ws. 1 to 5 respectively. In rebuttal the union has examined Venkatesh. Prior to that it has also examined one witness Narayana Rao.

15. The witnesses who have spoken on behalf of the management have given the evidence that on 16th June 1959 the old workers were not found working. Ningoji Rao has said in the examination-in-chief that he had gone for coffee at about 7 or 7-30 in the morning on 16th June 1959 and he found the proprietor, his brother and other two employees working. Those two employees were serving the coffee and cleaning the tables. He asked the proprietor to which the proprietor had replied that the old workers had absented. On subsequent two days also he found the same condition in the hotel and there were no other workers who had worked with the proprietor previously. In the cross-examination he has said that he did not know the reasons why the workers had absented.

16. Another witness M.W. 2 Narayanappa has also said that he did not ask the reason for the absence nor did the proprietor informed him the reasons for the absence of the workers. The third witness is Yagnanarayana who was the worker employed in the Cafe India managed by the father of the proprietor. He has said in the deposition that his proprietor had sent him to work in the second party hotel on 16th June 1959. But the same witness has said in the cross-examination that he did not know the reasons why the old workers did not come to work on those days. The same evidence has been given by Sri Manjanatha M.W. 4. This witness has also said that he did not know the reasons why the workers of the second party hotel had absented from duty and the proprietor also did not tell him the reasons for their absence. The last witness is Subramanya who is the proprietor. He has said that on 16th June 1959 five workers Ranga, Venu, Sanjeeva, Raju and Venkatesh did not come to work. These workers had absented and so he took the help of the other workers from the other hotel for 2 or 3 days and after their return he arranged for substitutes.

17. On the other hand the evidence of the union is that the proprietor had terminated the services of these workmen by force. The police had been called by the proprietor to remove them from the hotel. The police had taken them away out of the hotel and thereafter they were asked by the police to stay in a room. So they had stayed in a room for 2 days. In the cross-examination he has said that they did not know whether that room belonged to the proprietor or not; and the workers did not take it on rent.

18. Now the question is whether I have to rely on the version of the first party union or the management. The contention of the management is that the workers had deserted themselves from attending the duty and the proprietor has said in the deposition that he inferred that the workers had struck work for the reason that he had terminated the services of Sri Narayana Rao on 15th June 1959. According to this statement the story of the management seems unfounded for the reasons that the proprietor himself has inferred that the workers had struck work. When the workers as has been alleged by the proprietor, had struck work it was his duty at least to get some explanations for their strike. This explanation was not sought for by the management. But instead he had taken the assistance of the other workers of the other hotels to run his own hotel for 2 or 3 days and thereafter he had recruited the new hands. This statement of the proprietor belies that the workmen had deserted the services and absented from attending the duty. According to the statements that have been given by the witnesses of the second party there were only 2 workers who were supplying and cleaning the tables along with the proprietor and his brother. Whereas the payment register discloses that there were eight more workers having been employed by the management during that month. What happened about those 8 other workers none of the witnesses on behalf of the management had given an explanation. Further it is worth to be considered how all the workers absented from duty without intimation and submission of such plea seems unnatural. If they were intending to leave the job voluntarily they would have settled the accounts and taken the permission and voluntarily gone away. In the absence of all these facts it is evident that the workers did not desert the services, but there was something else for the absence of the workers on 16th June 1959 and onwards. This has been explained by the witness Venkatesha who has spoken on behalf of the workmen. According to his statement that the police had taken them away and asked them to stay in a room and so they had stayed in that room for those days. Further he has also said that the proprietor had refused to provide work on 16th June 1959. Because he was displeased with the action that has been taken by the workers in demanding the higher wages and for providing better facilities to them.

19. The representative for the second party hotel has attacked the veracity of the evidence that has been tendered on behalf of the union. He has said that the evidence of Narayana Rao should not be relied upon because it contained several contradictions such as he deposed in his examination-in-chief that he did not receive the notice of termination. In the cross examination he admitted about receiving the registered notice. Further the witness has said that he did not know the contents therein. Being a literate workman the allegation that he did not know the contents was incorrect. Secondly the witness has asserted that he gave a reply to the notice of termination through the union, but the union did not produce any evidence to that effect.

20. The above objection raised against the veracity of the evidence of Narayana Rao are not valid to take note of. I had a perusal of the testimony of Sri Narayana Rao. He has said in his deposition that on 12th June 1959 the proprietor asked him to put his signature to which he denied and thereafter he received a notice of termination by registered post with acknowledgment due. Further he has said that he has asked the union to give a reply. This explanation as has been given by Narayana Rao, is an answer to rely upon that his deposition was correct. He may be a literate workman knowing how to sign, but it seems that he was not so conversant to understand the contents of the termination notice. It is not un-natural to seek the aid of the union to give a reply to any notice that has been issued by the proprietor. But the failure of the union to produce a copy of the reply is not a fact to discredit the evidence of Sri Narayana Rao.

21. The next witness about whose evidence the proprietor had assailed is Venkatesha. His allegation was that Sri Venkatesha has said in his deposition that the termination of the services was the result for giving his evidence before the Magistrate in the proceeding that has been launched by the Shops and Establishment Inspector. This was a false statement, because that witness has given the evidence before the Magistrate on 23rd December 1959 and the prosecution was on 4th July 1949. But his termination was effected on 16th June 1959. This analysis has been made by the proprietor by reading the deposition of Sri Venkatesha. It has been said in the examination-in-chief by this witness as follows:—

“ We also complained to the Inspector of Shops and Establishment who had visited the hotel and he instituted a proceeding against the proprietor. In the proceedings I had given the evidence against the proprietor. Therefore the proprietor being aggrieved terminated our services.”

22. This piece of evidence has been interpreted by the proprietor to show that it was incorrect because the witness Sri Venkatesha had given the evidence before the Magistrate on 23rd December 1959. In my opinion this interpretation is partial because the entire statement of a witness should be taken together. But the proprietor has taken the last sentence and interpreted in the above manner. In fact it is not so. The starting commences from submitting the complaint to the Inspector and ending to the giving evidence before the Magistrate.

23. Further the proprietor had also questioned the veracity of the evidence of this witness Venkatesha stating that the witness had said that the services were terminated one month after the visit of the Inspector of the Shops and Establishment. The reason that has been given by the proprietor for not believing the evidence of Venkatesha was that the management did not take any vindictive attitude then and there when the Inspector of Shops and Establishment had visited the hotel. But after the lapse of one month it was not possible for the management to take drastic action to terminate the services of those workmen in order to get revenge for submitting the complaint before the Inspector. I had considered this objection, but I did not find any impracticability in taking action one month after inspection made by the Inspector of Shops and Establishment. It is not un-natural to say that the proprietor would have entertained the vengeance against the workers for submitting the complaint against him before the Inspector of Shops and Establishment and would have been waiting for the opportunity to terminate the services. Further it has been said by Venkatesh, the witness for the union that the proprietor had started to victimise the workers from the day of submitting the complaint to the Inspector of Shops and Establishment and also for submitting the notice of demands. He has also said that the proprietor had taken the aid of the police in removing the workers from the hotel and forcing them to leave the premises. All these facts go to prove that the relationship between the proprietor and the workers were not cordial, but there was some efforts on behalf of the union to get the better facilities against which the proprietor was endeavouring to get them under his control. His immediate action in substituting the new recruits for the old hands for the alleged reason of absenting for two days is itself a proof that the proprietor was in hurry to get rid of the old hands. According to his statement as to he had a reason to infer, that the workers had struck work illegally, it would have been better for him to issue the notices calling for their explanations and asking them to attend the work, but he has not done it so. Further he has also said in his deposition that he had gone and seen the quarters where the workers had put up on the 18th of June 1959, but why he did not do so on the 6th or 17th instant of that month, it is not explained. This piece of evidence speaks that the workers were in the hotel on the 16th or 17th of June 1959. According to the statement of Venkatesh the witness for the union it has been disclosed that the police had forced them to stay in a room for 2 days. The proprietor had expressed orally that he would not provide any work for them on those days. I therefore have a reason to believe the version of the union first party that the management had terminated the services of these workmen, for no good reason.

24. I shall now take up the question of legality or illegality of the termination. The contention of the management is that the workers except Raju the others had put in the service less than six months and according to section 74 (1) of the Shops and Establishment Act there was no necessity to hold any enquiry. This interpretation seems erroneous because section 74 (1) of the Shops and Establishment Act does not speak that there should be no enquiry to be held for termination or discharge of the workers who have put in less than six months service or workers who are temporary. The principles of natural justice demands that there should be some sort of enquiry before terminating the services of the workers who have put in a considerable length of service. The proprietor himself has once spoken while he was examined in proof of the non-existence of the industrial dispute as to that he had employed altogether 13 employees in his hotel and all the workers were permanent. This fact in itself is a proof that these workers were also permanent. All the old books have not been produced to show that they are temporary. The two registers that have been produced are indirectly corroborating that the workers were permanent.

25. Regarding Narayana Rao it has been alleged that his work was not satisfactory and so many warnings were given. What were those warnings given by the management against Narayana Rao were not brought to the notice of the court. Secondly there is no such proof that his work was not satisfactory. In the absence of such material evidence I have to conclude that the termination was also not bona-fide, but with some ulterior motives the services of this workman have been terminated. Thus I conclude and hold that the management of the second party hotel had terminated the services of Sri Ranga, Narayana, Raju, Sanjeeva, Venkatesh and Venu illegally and the action was also unjustified.

26. The union has also asserted that there was a pendency of proceedings in respect of the termination of three other workers by name Chellaiah, G. Y. Setty and Narayana. During the pendency of the conciliation the management has taken this action of terminating the services of these workmen without obtaining the permission of the conciliation officer. The proprietor has said in his counter that he had gone to South Canara and he did not receive any notice, but later on he got the information. He has said that the conciliation officer did not enquire the matters in full but he submitted the failure report. This statement indirectly substantiates the statement of the union that the conciliation was pending. When there was a conciliation pending before the conciliation officer, before termination or discharge of any workers by the employer permission was necessary as per section 33 of the Industrial Dispute Act. The termination is illegal as permission was not sought for from the competent authority. On this count too the termination of these workmen became illegal. In short, I adjudicate the issue No. 1 corresponding to the first point of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference as above.

27. The next issue is the relief to be granted. I have already expressed that the management of the second party hotel was not justified in its action of terminating the services of these workmen. It was also not bona-fide. I therefore find a reason that the workmen except Govinda and Rama should be reinstated in continuity of their past services. Regarding the back wages I find some evidence on record that most of the workers got the job somewhere else after some months and they worked intermittently in some other hotels. Therefore I am of the opinion that it would suffice to direct that half of the back wages from the date of termination to the date when this award becomes enforceable i.e., 30 days after the publication in the Gazette should be paid to all the workers. This is my finding to the 2nd point of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference.

28. In the result I pass the award in the above terms. I order no costs.

Dictated and corrected by me.

ANNEXURE I.IN THE COURT OF THE PRESIDING OFFICER, LABOUR COURT, BANGALORE-9.Dated this 16th day of June 1960.Reference No. 158/59, 171/59 and 183/59.*Present :

Sri G. S. Hiremath B.A., LL.B. ... Presiding Officer

Appearance.—

The workmen represented by the Secretary, Bangalore District
Hotel and Canteen Workers' Union, Main Road, Yeshwanthpur P.O., Bangalore-3 ... (I Party)

Vs.

The Management of Circle Lunch Home, Bangalore-4 ... (II Party)

Preliminary Order.

1. Parties are heard. There are three cases pending for adjudication between the same parties. In all the three cases the management has raised the objection about the question of jurisdiction and it has been alleged that there existed no industrial dispute or it ceased to exist as an industrial dispute. So both the parties were directed to let in the evidence to the extent of jurisdictional matter. The question being common in all these three orders of reference a common order is to be passed and the same will be taken in the other cases also.

2. The management of the second party hotel has examined three witnesses on its behalf. On the other hand the union has examined two witnesses. Apart from the oral evidence the workers who are now working under the management of the second party hotel have filed their individual affidavits.

3. I had gone through the testimonies of the witnesses and it has been admitted by the proprietor himself that the workers, now working with him, have been recently engaged about 4 or 5 months ago. On the admission of this fact it is quite evident that the workers who had espoused the cause of the aggrieved workman are not in the employment of the second party hotel at present. Hence the affidavits filed by these new entrants would be ineffective for the reason that they were not then in the employment of the second party hotel when the disputes had been raised by the then workers and the matter was taken up for conciliation and thereafter the Government was pleased to refer the same disputes for adjudication. Thus the disputes had taken the shape and character of industrial disputes at their inception and even on the subsequent stage.

4. The representative for the management had contended that the workers in the employment at present have dropped their support and the disputes, which had taken the shape of industrial disputes, have lost their characters and again they have been reshaped into individual disputes. In support of his contention he has relied upon the case law 1959 II LLJ 348 'Hindu' Madras Vs Its working journalist and another. I had a perusal of that case law. It has been observed by his Lordship Justice Sri Balakrishna Ayyar that there should be a majority of workmen who espouse the cause of the aggrieved workers to convert the characteristic of the individual dispute into an industrial dispute and in order to seize the jurisdiction by the tribunals or the courts, constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act. Such characteristic of the industrial dispute should remain throughout the pendency of the dispute till its final disposal by the court. Further it is also observed that the courts and the tribunals should take into consideration the subsequent events that occur during the pendency of the dispute and as such the question of jurisdiction has also to be considered in the context of the past and the present facts. Once the court may seize the jurisdiction on previous facts, but the same may not continue on the subsequent dates and for deciding this question of jurisdiction the court or the tribunals should view the subsequent events for its finding. During the pendency of the dispute if a majority of workmen has withdrawn the cause of those workers, which had been taken once by them, thus bringing the industrial dispute into individual dispute and then the court or the tribunals will be having no jurisdiction to proceed further, for under the Industrial Disputes Act the courts or the tribunals have got a limited jurisdiction on specific matters.

5. The above observation as has been made by his Lordship is to be followed in determining the fact whether the court has the jurisdiction to enter upon the matters for its determination. Such jurisdiction should continue all along till the final disposal of the case. But here in determining the question of jurisdiction under the Industrial Dispute Act it is to be seen whether the Industrial Dispute that existed at the time of reference is in continuation at the time of his final determination. In order to see whether there existed an industrial dispute, the important factor is whether a majority of workers or atleast as appreciable number of workers is still supporting the same cause, which has been taken once and has been made it a common cause, converting the individual disputes as industrial disputes.

6. Now, I have to see whether there remains an appreciable number of workers still supporting the cause that has been taken up formerly by the workers. Here in the instant case most of or almost all old workers are not in the employment of the hotel as a result of their termination or some other reasons. Once the management terminated the services of 8 workers and secondly three and it was said there were 16 workers then working with the management. Thus there remained five workers in the employment. But what happened to those five workers it is not disclosed. It has come on record that all the present 13 workers are fresh recruits. It is alleged by the second party that these 13 workers newly recruited have filed the affidavits to the effect that they did not espouse the cause nor do they intend to continue it and hence there exists no industrial dispute between the parties.

7. The above contention of the management is apparently appealing, but when viewed in the context of the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act that argument falls on the ground. It has been defined in section 2(s) of the Industrial Dispute Act that the dismissed workers have also been defined as workers for a limited purpose. I have no hesitation to say that all these workers whose services have been terminated are also the workmen for the purpose of this proceeding. It has become now a settled rule of law that an appreciable number of workmen in the employment should espouse the cause of the aggrieved workers, to convert the individual dispute into an industrial dispute. By these decisions it follows that at the time of espousing the cause of a certain aggrieved workers of that concern or unit or establishment there should be an appreciable number of workmen of that union or establishment or concern in the employment for making that dispute as an industrial dispute but those aggrieved workers have been precluded from converting their individual dispute into industrial dispute, because then they will be no more in the employment of the concern. On the same principle if I view whether there exists an industrial dispute, I have to see how far the other party, alleging that there existed no industrial dispute, has proved that the dispute once referred as an industrial dispute for adjudication has lost its characteristic and has become an individual dispute. The management of the second party has relied upon only on the affidavits and evidence of workmen of the 13 who now in its employment. But there is no evidence or affidavit from the dismissed workers and those workers who were then present while the cause of those 8 workers and as well 3 workers had been taken up. According to the definition of workmen it means any person for purposes of any proceeding under this Act in relation to an industrial dispute includes a workman who has been dismissed, discharged or retrenched in connection with or as a consequence of that dispute, or whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute Now I have to see whether for purposes of this proceedings which are pending before this court whether those workers whose services have been terminated are the workmen or not. The definition is quite clear, for the purposes of any proceedings all the workers, whose services have been terminated in connection with or as a consequence of that dispute or whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute, are workmen. As such it is quite essential that all those workman whose services have been terminated, discharged or retrenched should subscribe along with others in the matter of ousting the jurisdiction of the court when once it has been seized by it, by way of withdrawing the cause either through the union or individually.

8. In order to know whether a majority of workmen has withdrawn the cause from further proceedings, it should be viewed in the context of this definition as per section 2 (s) of Industrial Dispute Act. To drop the proceedings from further prosecution the workers as defined under section 2 (s) of the Industrial Dispute Act should also file their affidavits or give evidence to the effect that they do not intend to pursue the matter thereafter. During the pendency of the proceedings if such workers have not filed any affidavits or have not given evidence to that effect and only those workers, who have been newly recruited, have spoken to that effect that they never intend to prosecute further, does not oust the jurisdiction of the tribunals or the Labour Courts once seized, because they themselves never form a majority. In the instant case the service of all previous workers have been terminated and the new recruits have been taken. The old employees have not filed any affidavits nor did they come into the witness box and give evidence to that effect. I am therefore of the opinion that the jurisdiction, once entertained, does not cease by the production of the affidavits and as well by the evidence of the new employees of the second party hotel, as their evidence is not considered to be unbiased.

9. The brief facts as have been narrated in the preceeding paragraphs disclose that the old workers had submitted their demands and thereupon the cause of action had arisen. During the pendency of that cause of action the management terminated the services in the first instance of 3 workmen and subsequently 8 workmen. Thus it is clear that the management terminated almost all the workmen and in their places it has taken fresh and new recruits. This action of the management is not fair and the evidence given by the new recruits is not to be relied upon for the reasons that they are under the obligation of the management.

10. Accordingly I adjudicate issues 1 to 3 as above in favour of the first party. I hold that this court has still the jurisdiction to proceed further.

11. Accordingly I pass the order holding that this court has still the jurisdiction to proceed further and there exists an industrial dispute between the parties. I direct the parties to adduce the evidence on merits. The file is posted to 30th June 1960 for adducing the evidence. The same order be taken on other files L.C.R. No. 158/59.

IN THE MATTER OF AN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE BETWEEN THE
WORKMEN AND THE MANAGEMENT OF SRI VENKATESWARA
POWER ROLLING MILLS, BANGALORE.

Industry : Power Rolling

District : Bangalore.

AWARD.

1 The Government of Mysore in their Order No. LLH 481 LLD 59, dated 2nd February 1960 referred an industrial dispute existing between the Workmen and the Management of Sri Venkateswara Power Rolling Mills, Bangalore, to this Labour Court for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by Cl. (c) of subsection (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. XIV of 1947).

2 The points of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference are as follows:—

- (1) Is the management justified in refusing work to Sri Velayudhan and Sri Ekambarachari with effect from 17th September 1958?
- (2) Are the workmen justified in demanding that the two ex-workmen be reinstated with full compensation for the entire period of involuntary unemployment? If not, to what relief, if any, are the affected workmen entitled?

3 The order of reference was taken on the file of the court and summonses were issued to the parties as usual. Both the parties put in their appearance and filed their respective statements.

4 On the pleadings of the parties, the following issues are framed for adjudication:—

- (1) Is the joint application of both workmen bad in law and not maintainable as alleged by the Management of second party concern.
- (2) Is the period of service put in by both workmen correct?
- (3) Whether both the workmen abandoned the service voluntarily as alleged by the second party concern?

Or

Is the management justified in refusing work to Sri Velayudhan and Sri Ekambarachari with effect from 17th September 1958?

- (4) Whether both the workmen are well employed elsewhere?

Or

Are the workmen justified in demanding that the two ex-workmen be reinstated with full compensation for the entire period of involuntary unemployment. If not to what relief, if any, are the affected workmen entitled?

5 The file was posted for evidence of the parties. The parties appeared and took some adjournments on the ground that there was a move for compromise. Finally on 25th September 1960 both the parties appeared and filed a joint memorandum of settlement. Since the Presiding Officer of this court was on tour on that day the case was posted for a future date for verification. Though many chances were given the parties did not come and verify the memorandum of settlement. This fact goes to show that the parties are not interested any more in the dispute as they have already settled the matter between themselves. Hence I think no further action is necessary in the matter.

6 I therefore pass the award dismissing the order of reference for the above said reason. No costs.

Dictated and corrected by me.

AWARD.

Both the above noted cases arise out of the dismissal by Hindustan Machine Tools Company, of one of its employees. The order of dismissal was passed on 7th August 1959 which happens to be during the pendency of I.T. No. 8 of 1959. This latter dispute was referred by the Government Order No. LLH 168 ILD 58, dated 23rd May 1959, to the Industrial Tribunal then presided over by Sri D. H. Chandrasekharaiya. By virtue of Order No. LLH 112 LLE 60, dated 5th July 1960 read with Order No. JLLH 170 LLE 60, dated 13th July 1960, the undersigned has been appointed as Presiding Officer of the Industrial Tribunal in place of the abovesaid gentleman. Hence, in pursuance of the provisions of Sections 7 and 8 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the two cases came up before the undersigned for decision.

2. The petition in Serial No. 2 states that on 7th August 1959 at about 9-30 A.M. its employee Sri C. S. Reddy was served with a memo instructing him not to leave his section without getting permission and also drawing his attention to the fact that his general behaviour in the section had not been satisfactory. At about 12 noon the same day the said employee came to the room of the Manager who had issued the memo and flung the memo on his table shouting that he was not prepared to accept such nonsense. Although he was advised to behave properly, he took the memo from the table, tore and crumpled it and threw the same on the Manager's table and walked away. The same day an enquiry was held at which not only the employee but also his observer Sri B. C. Bhattacharji were present. As a result of the enquiry he was dismissed from service from that date, but his wages for one month were directed to be paid. The Application Serial No. 2 was duly filed before the Industrial Tribunal on 14th August 1959 seeking approval of the action taken.

3. In the meantime on 11th August 1959 the said employee filed the above Complaint No. 1 under the provisions of Section 33-A of the Industrial Disputes Act. He has also put his counter statement to the above Serial Application filed by the employer. His contention is that his dismissal from service is absolutely unjust, illegal and arbitrary and that it is malafide as well, with a view to victimise him for his trade union activities. According to him no charge sheet was given to him regarding the alleged misconduct and no explanation called for. He also contends that the enquiry was not in accordance with the principles of natural justice. He has one more contention viz., he was a protected workman under the Act.

4. His last contention is the subject matter of Issue No. 1. It was heard by my predecessor as a preliminary issue. Orders have been passed by him on 3rd October 1959 holding that the employee in question is not a protected workman under the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act. I have therefore to take up Issues Nos. 2, 3 and 4 for consideration. At this stage I may mention that by consent of parties, both the Serial Application and the Complaint have been heard together as both relate to the same incident and as common questions of fact and law arise in both the cases. The evidence has been recorded in the Complaint No. 1. In the course of this award reference to Sri C. S. Reddy will be made as the Complainant and to the Hindustan Machine Tools Company, as the Opposite Party.

It is argued by Sri Bopanna, the learned Advocate for the opposite Party that where two cases under Section 33 and 33A are to be heard together, as now, the Tribunal has to take up for consideration the application filed under Section 33 and decide whether the approval asked for by the employer should or should not be granted. In case it is granted, then there is no need to proceed with the complaint under Section 33-A, for in that event there will be no contravention of Section 33 and therefore no scope for the operation of Section 33-A. The complaint under Section 33-A will, therefore, automatically drop off. This appears to be a reasonable and correct proposition. I will therefore first take up Serial No. 2 for consideration.

6. It is next urged by the learned Advocate for the Opponent that the scope of enquiry under Section 33 is very narrow and limited. Since the law has placed a ban on the normal right of an employer to punish his employee for misconduct, the enquiry of the Tribunal should be directed mainly to find out whether such a ban by law can be lifted or not. For this purpose, it is urged that the employer has merely to satisfy the Tribunal that there is a prima facie case and a proper enquiry. If these two tests are satisfied, the Tribunal, it is urged, has to allow the application filed under Section 33. In support of this proposition, several authorities have been cited. It will be enough for me to mention a few of the important rulings of the Supreme Court.

The case of Martin Burn, Ltd., vs. R. N. Banerjee, reported in A.I.R. 1958 S.C. 79, is one under Section 22 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act (1950). It lays down :—

“The Tribunal before whom an application is made under Section 22 has not to adjudicate upon any industrial dispute arising between the employer and the workman but has only got to consider whether the ban, which is imposed on the employer in the matter of altering the conditions of employment to the prejudice of the workman, or his discharge or punishment whether by dismissal or otherwise, during the pendency of the proceedings therein referred to, should be lifted. A prima facie case has to be made out by the employer for the lifting of such ban.”

It may be noted that sections 22 and 33 of the Appellate Tribunal Act are almost the same as Sections 33 and 33-A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

In another decision of the Supreme Court reported in 1960 II LLJ. 12 (Caltex (India) Ltd., vs. their workmen), it has been observed :

“It has been consistently held that in exercising its jurisdiction under Section 33 the tribunal has to consider whether a prima facie case has been made out by the employer for the dismissal of the employee in question. If the employer has held a proper enquiry into the alleged misconduct of the employee and it does not appear that the proposed dismissal amounts to victimisation or an unfair labour practice, the tribunal has to limit its enquiry only to the question as to whether a prima facie case has been made out or not.”

7. In view of the foregoing decisions of the Supreme Court, it would be necessary not only to find out whether there is a prima facie case and also whether a proper enquiry was held. Proper enquiry necessarily means that at the time of the enquiry, the opponent must have had a fair deal including an opportunity to know and answer, as well as to meet the charges against him. These points involve the consideration as to whether the rules of natural justice have been followed or violated. It may be mentioned that in the present case it is urged by Sri A. Nagesha Rao the learned Advocate for the Complainant that there has been such a violation in that the Officer who was the virtual complainant against the employee in question was also the judge to hold the enquiry. The learned Advocate urges that it is an elementary principle of natural justice that no man can be a judge in his own case. According to the version of the Opponent, the complainant approached him in his office and behaved in a rude and insulting manner by throwing on the table the paper on which an order was issued by the Officer and by uttering some offensive words. The whole complaint was based on this incident. Mr. Jesudasan the officer concerned, felt aggrieved against the employee. He is thus virtually the complainant. At the enquiry held the same day, he has examined himself as a witness. He was admittedly an Enquiry Officer and along with three others, gave a verdict that the employee was guilty of misconduct and that he should be punished by dismissal. It is urged by Sri Nagesha Rao that the approach to the case by the Officer concerned could not have been impartial and that the verdict must therefore be deemed to have been vitiated by prejudice which he obviously carried towards the employee.

8. It is a fundamental principle in the administration of justice that a person who has some interest in the case should not act as a judge in that case. It is well settled that no man can be a judge as well as a suitor at one and the same time. The recognised principle of British Justice is Nemo Debet Esse Judex in Propria Sua Causa. A leading case on this point is Dimes vs. Grand Junction Canal Co. (3 HL. CAS 759). In that case, Lord Cottenham, the Lord Chancellor of England who gave a decree in favour of the Company, was a shareholder of that Company. The House of Lords unanimously reversed that decree and observed :

"It is of the last importance that the maxim that 'no man is to be a judge in his own cause' should be held sacred. And that it is not to be confined to a case in which he is a party, but applies to a cause in which he has any interest."

In the present case it is contended that Mr. Jesudasan was not the only Enquiry Officer. There was a Committee of 4 officers of whom Mr. Jesudasan was one. Even if his voice or vote is ignored, there were three other persons who came to the conclusion that the employee was guilty to the wrongful act. This is enough, it is contended, to justify the verdict against the employee. In respect of this question, it will be useful to take note of an English decision, R vs. Hertfordshire J. J. 6 Q B. 753. In that case it has been held that the presence of one interested justice renders the court improperly constituted and vitiates the proceedings, it is immaterial that there was a majority in favour of the decision without reckoning the vote of the interested justice.

The same principle of natural justice has been upheld by the Supreme Court of India in the case of U. P. State vs. Mohamad Noor reported in A. I. R. 1958 S. C. 86. In that case Sri B. N. Bhalla was the Enquiry Officer. In some preliminary Enquiry and in his presence one Mohamad Khalit had spoken certain things. But in the department trial he denied having made any such statements. To contradict him, Sri Bhalla had his own testimony recorded by a Deputy Superintendent of Police. In these circumstances, their Lordships observed :

"The act of Shri B. N. Bhalla in having his own testimony recorded in the case indubitably evidences a state of mind which clearly discloses considerable bias against the respondent. If it shocks the notions of judicial propriety and fair play, as indeed it does, it was bound to make a deeper impression on the mind of the respondent as to the unreality and futility of the proceedings conducted in this fashion. We find ourselves in agreement with the High Court that the rules of natural justice were completely discarded and all canons of fair play were grievously violated by Shri B. N. Bhalla continuing to preside over the trial. Decision arrived at by such process and order founded on such decision cannot possibly be regarded as valid or binding."

9. In view of the foregoing decisions, it is clear that the principles of natural justice were violated in the course of the Enquiry in the present case. Thus the enquiry is vitiated. In the words of the Supreme Court, "the decision arrived at by such process and order founded on such decisions cannot possibly be regarded as valid or binding." In view of this finding it follows that no approval can be given to the employer for the order of dismissal and the Serial No. 2 filed by them will have to be dismissed.

10. We have now to take up the complaint under Section 33-A. In order to show that the employer has contravened the provisions of Section 33, Sri Nagesha Rao for the complainant urges that the two requisites noted in the proviso to sub-section (2) of that section have not been fulfilled. According to him, before dismissing an employee, the employer must apply to the tribunal for approval of the dismissal and before so applying he must have paid one month's salary to the employee. In these contentions he is supported by a decision of the Bombay High Court in the case of Premier Automobiles vs. R. B. Polkan, reported in 1960 I LLJ 443 (April). A view almost contrary to the above has been taken by the Rajasthan High Court in the case of Jipur Spinning and Weaving Mills, Ltd., Vs. Government of Rajasthan, 1959 II LLJ 649. Both these views were considered by me in another case before this Tribunal viz., H. M. T. vs. K. S. Nagabhushan in Serial No 8 in I. T. No. 8 of 1959. My ultimate decision has been in a line with that of the Rajasthan High Court. I need not discuss the questions here again. But it may be noted that an account of the amount due to the Complainant was made by the H.M.T. At the time of the order of dismissal, his salary was Rs. 39 and with D. A. it amounted to Rs. 45 per month. The amount found due to the Complainant including one month's extra salary, came to Rs. 72.80 nP. (vide P.W. 1). This was sent to the Complainant by M.O. As it was refused, it came back and the amount was returned to the H.M.T. and was received by the Accounts Officer Sri Nageswara Rao. This is further evidenced by the M. O. receipts Exhibits P 8, P 9 and P 10. This shows that the employer did all he could by offering the salary and sending the M.O. to the Complainant. He has thus complied with the provisions of Section 33(2) (b).

11. In view of the dismissal of the Serial application filed by the employer, there will be contravention of the provisions of Sec. 33. This is not disputed by both sides. Under these circumstances, the provisions of Section 33A are called for. But it is urged by the Learned Advocate for the Opponent that even in the case of an enquiry under Section 33-A, the scope is much limited, though it might be somewhat wider than that under Section 33. He urges that it is not open to the Tribunal to sit as a Court of appeal against the findings of the Enquiry Officer and to reappraise the evidence before the enquiry. On this point also he referred to several decisions. I think it sufficient to refer to some important decisions of the Supreme Court only.

12. It may be mentioned here that an enquiry under Section 33-A will be as if it were a dispute referred to or pending before the Tribunal and finally an award has to be submitted to the Government, much the same as in the case of a reference under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Therefore, decisions given on considering references under Section 10 are appropriate to the present case also. The case of Indian Iron and Steel Co. vs. their workmen reported in A. I. R. 1958 S. C. 130 to (1958 I LLJ 260) was one referred under Section 10. In that case their Lordships have clearly laid down certain principles as follows :—

“Undoubtedly, the management of a concern has power to direct its own internal administration and discipline; but the power is not unlimited and when a dispute arises, Industrial Tribunals have been given the power to see whether the termination of service of a workman is justified and to give appropriate relief. In cases of dismissal on misconduct, the Tribunal does not, however, act as a Court of appeal and substitute its own judgment for that of the management. It will interfere.

- (i) when there is want of good faith,
- (ii) when there is victimisation or unfair labour practice,
- (iii) when the management has been guilty of a basic error or violation of a principle of natural justice and
- (iv) when on the materials the finding is completely baseless or perverse. In our view, Abharani's case comes under clause (iv) above.”

The above case is quoted with approval in another decision of the Supreme Court reported in 1959, 1 LLJ 285 (G. Mekanzie & Co. Ltd., Vs. their workmen). Their Lordships have further observed in this case :—

“It is for the management to determine what constitutes major misconduct within its standing orders sufficient to merit dismissal of a workman but in determining such misconduct it must have facts upon which to base its conclusions and it must act in good faith without caprice or discrimination and without motive of vindictiveness, intimidation or resorting to unfair labour practice and there must be no infraction of the accepted rules of natural justice. When the management does have facts from which it can conclude misconduct, its judgement cannot be questioned provided the above mentioned principles are not violated.”

The latest pronouncement of the Supreme Court on this point is to be found in the case of Bangalore Wollen, Cotton and Silk Mills Co. Ltd., Vs. Dasappa, reported in 1960, 11 LLJ 39. After considering several earlier decisions, their Lordships made certain important observations about the points of law under Section 33 (vide head note):—

"In such a case the industrial tribunal is not called upon to decide whether in its opinion the evidence given by the witness was true but only whether when the enquiring officer (domestic enquiry) stated that he considered such evidence credible he had acted like a reasonable man. The Industrial Tribunal could not examine the evidence on record to come to a better view, regarding the guilt of the concerned workman nor could it examine the evidence to decide as to whether the evidence on record conclusively proves the guilt of the concerned workman."

13. Bearing in mind the above principles laid down by the Supreme Court, we have to consider the matters involved in this case. The first point for consideration is the allegation by the Complainant that the enquiry was mala fide and that it was vitiated by the fact that there has been victimisation of the Complainant. It is contended that the Complainant was an active member of the Trade Union and that therefore he came under the frown of the management. He alleges that the present enquiry and dismissal had its origin in the above.

14. In this connection, my attention has been drawn to some documents. Ext. C-7, dated 2nd June 1959, is a copy of a confidential letter written by C.W. 1., Sri Krishnan, the President of the Employees' Association to Sri K. Mathulla, the Managing Director. It mentions about the demands made by the Labour Union and of the 'Demands Week' conducted by them. It affirms that they have adopted an attitude of negotiations and negotiated settlement. It further suggests that the management has been adopting an unresponsive and hostile attitude towards the labour. There is a further hint that some officers of the Opponent have been particularly hostile to some Members of the Employees' Association. It may be noted that there is no mention of the Complainant amongst the victims, although the names of some others have been given. In conclusion, the President desired a negotiated settlement of all disputes and wanted to meet the Managing Director for a personal discussion. I am afraid that it does not advance the cause of the Complainant in this case. Similarly, Ext. C-5, dated 5th June 1959, which is a reply to the above written by the Managing Director is also of little help. He merely states that since the industrial dispute is pending before the Industrial Tribunal, it will serve no useful purpose to have a meeting with the President of the Employees' Association. Ext. C-6 is the Balance Sheet of the Opponent for the year ending 30th June 1960. It is relied upon for one statement, viz., "the unsettled labour situation reported last year continued during the major part of the year under report." It is equally unhelpful. Ext. C-8, dated 25th August 1959, is said to be a copy of the notice put up under the signature of Mr. K. Asselmann, the General Technical Manager. According to that notice, the Complainant is reported to have stated: "The rival Union was supported by Sri D. Rajagopal and Sri S. M. Patil". He is said to have told the meeting that the Management gave thousands of rupees during election time to get their agents into the Union and also for developing the Karmik Sangh, the rival Labour Union. It further mentions that as the Complainant categorically denies to have made such statements, this notice was being published in the interest of Management and Officers. No doubt, this notice suggests that there was some suspicion against the Complainant. It also appears that on the clarification made by the Complainant all that the Management was anxious about was to publish his denial so as to wipe out the effect of the allegations ascribed to the Officers and possibly of the allegations against the Complainant also. There is no further link connecting this document with the point under consideration. Mr. Krishnan. C.W. 4., who was examined to prove this document does not say a word to explain any possible connection between this document and the case under consideration. The Complainant himself does not refer to it at all. Under these circumstances, I cannot accept the contention that the above documents establish any mala fides on the part of the Opponent against the Complainant, much less do they show that the dismissal of the Complainant was the result of any such mala fide.

15. One more contention in this connection is that the Complainant has been all along treated with disfavour and with some amount of prejudice. In support of this contention, it is alleged that opportunities were denied to the Complainant for getting training and promotion, the suggestion being that when similar opportunities were given to his companions, he was singled out and denied those opportunities. It is alleged that promotion was given to his fellow-workers (1) Karumbiah and (2) S. A. Ahmed, while the Complainant was kept back. This conclusion is sought to be drawn from the statement, Ext. P-4. It shows that Karumbiah joined as a casual helper on 4th November 1955 while the Complainant joined as such on 20th June 1956, i.e., more than 7 months later. Karumbiah was reclassified as W-7 on 17th October 1956, while the Complainant got that classification on 8th October 1956, i.e., earlier than the former. Ext. P-7 shows that on 8th October 1956, the Complainant was taken as a permanent helper. In April 1958, he was promoted as a Bench Fitter. He is unable to say who others that joined as Helpers along with him, were promoted earlier than himself as Bench Fitters. It is alleged that although two other employees were sent for further training, the Complainant was denied that opportunity. This allegation also remains unsubstantiated. He admits that he had been sent for training along with two others, but his contention was that he was recalled from training while the other two were given further training. He is not in a position to mention the names of the other two who were given preference. No other witnesses support him.

16. Ext. P-4 shows that Kulliah, Nanjappa and Hanumanthaiah who were much senior to him, were not sent for training; while Karumbiah who was also senior and himself were the two persons sent for training from 8th December 1958 to 21st July 1959. In the course of his cross-examination P.W. 8, Budan Khan states that Karumbiah and Hanumantahiah were not sent for any further training but they were transferred to the other departments. Before they were absorbed in those departments, they had to get some special training. But that was not the training at the training centre. Hence, there was no question of preferring them to the complainant. These two persons were transferred in the same grade and not on any promotion. So there was no question of denying any opportunity to the Complainant. There is no indication of any discrimination or preference against him. His contentions are unfounded. There is no room for the allegation of mala fides on the part of the Opponent.

17. Thus, although there is no mala fides nor victimisation or unfair labour practice, in this case the fact remains that there is no proper enquiry. It has already been held that a principle of natural justice has been violated with the result that the whole enquiry is vitiated. That is why the approval to the dismissal ordered as a consequence of the enquiry is denied. Nevertheless the Opponent has placed before this Tribunal the whole evidence about the misconduct alleged against the Complainant. The procedure to be followed by the Tribunal under such circumstances is explained in the case of Punjab National Bank-vs-their workmen, reported in 1959 II LLJ 666. There it has been observed by the Supreme Court:—

“It follows that if no enquiry has in fact been held by the employer, the issue about the merits of the impugned order of dismissal is at large before the Tribunal and, on the evidence adduced before it the Tribunal has to decide for itself whether the misconduct alleged is proved, and if yes, what would be the proper order to make. In such a case the point about the exercise of managerial functions does not arise at all.”

There is a very recent decision of the Supreme Court on this point in Orissa Cement Ltd., vs Adikanda Sahu, published in 1960 I LLJ 518 (April). The view of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, that no enquiry had been made by the Appellant was met by the Supreme Court with the following observations:—

“If no enquiry was held by the Appellant, it has produced evidence before the Tribunal to support its case, and as we have just indicated that the case had been held proved by both the Tribunals.”

18. In view of these decisions, even if we ignore the enquiry held as being defective and invalid, and even if we proceed on the basis that there was no enquiry, the evidence led before the Tribunal can be looked into and it may be decided afresh whether the misconduct alleged is proved against the Complainant or not.

19. There are some more technical objections raised on behalf of the Complainant in respect of the procedure adopted at the enquiry. It is contended, for instance, that the procedure laid down in Rule 8 relating to spot suspension and enquiry are not applicable to the present case and also that as that procedure was followed in the enquiry, the case of the Complainant has been prejudiced. No doubt, there is some force in this contention, but since the whole matter is being reconsidered on the basis of the evidence before the Tribunal, it is no longer necessary to pursue this point relating to the procedure at the enquiry.

20. The main incident relating to the misconduct took place leading to this incident is told by Sri Budan Khan, P.W. 3. He is the Foreman of the Inspection and Manufacturing Department where the Complainant was working. He states that since about one and a half or two months he found the Complainant frequently absenting himself from his section. As oral warnings given by him on several occasions did not prove effective, he orally reported to the Manager, who also gave an oral warning to the Complainant. Thereafter a written warning Ext. C1, dated 31st July 1959 was issued by Sri Jesudasan, the Manager of the Planning Dept. On the morning of the incident he again found Sri Reddy away from his workspot and at about 9 A.M. he told the Manager on phone about it. The latter issued a Memo Ext. P 5, which was got served on the Complainant by P.W. 3. Thereafter the Complainant approached P.W. 3 and asked him what it was. Not satisfied with the reply given by P.W. 3 the Complainant said that he would see the Manager. The next part of the evidence is what took place in the office of the Manager at about 12 noon. The principal witness on this point is Sri J. K. Jesudasan the Manager himself. He is P.W. 1. According to him the Complainant came into his room and threw the memo on his table saying "What is this nonsense". Although he advised the Complainant to keep at the workspot and attend to the work, the latter was not in a mood to accept the words of advice. He took the memo from the table, tore and crumpled the memo and its cover and threw both at the Manager, but they fell on his table. Thereafter the Complainant left the room. The pieces of the torn memo and the envelope are Exhibits P 5 and Article 1 respectively. This part of the incident which took place in his room is substantially corroborated by the evidence of P.W. 2 Miss Ward, Stenographer. She states that she was at that time filing some papers in the office room of P.W. 1. According to her Sri Reddy the Complainant was seen standing outside the room. When she called him in, he went to the Manager's table and throwing a paper on it said that he was not prepared to take any such instructions and that is was all nonsense. She corroborates the other part of the story and identifies Ext. P 5 and the envelope Article (1) as the ones thrown on the table by the Complainant. P.W. 3 appeared at the place soon after the Complainant entered the room. He also corroborates the incident that took place in the office room of P.W. 3.

21. As against this the Complainant denies the allegations that on the morning of 7th August 1959 he was not in the workspot or that he was loitering. He, however, admits that he received the memo Ext. P 5 and that he went to the Manager's office at 12 noon during lunch time. According to him, when he placed the memo on the Manager's table, the latter took it into his hands and said, "I do not want to talk with you. You get out, nonsense". It was the Manager who crumpled the memo in his hands and threw it away. No further talk took place between the Complainant and the Manager. In this way, he just tries to push the blame on the Manager for having torn and crumpled the memo and the envelope and also for having used the word

'nonsense'. There is no witness to corroborate his version. The two witnesses examined by him viz., C.W. 1, T. C. Mariappa and C.W. 3, K.V.G. Maray, merely say that on the morning of 7th August 1959 at about 9 A.M. or so, Sri Reddy was working at his place. Neither of them say anything about the incident that took place in the office room of the Manager. It is significant to note that in spite of the lengthy cross examination of P.W. 1, no question has been put to him as to whether it was not he that crumpled P-5 and article (1) nor has he been questioned as to whether it was not he who uttered the words, "Nonsense". The only attack of the Complainant against the evidence led for the Opponent was that Miss. Ward was not present in the Office room. The suggestion is that she must have been in her own Steno's cabin. Complainant C.W. 1, however, admits that there has been no difference between him and Miss. Ward. P.W. 2. On a careful consideration of the evidence on this point, I am of opinion that the story as given by P.W. 1, P.W. 2 and P.W. 3 is substantially truthful. Besides this, in the course of his examination at the Enquiry the Complainant has specifically admitted that he did shout, tear the Memo and throw it on the table [vide Exhibit P1 (a)].

22. The next point for consideration is whether the behaviour of the Complainant amounts to misconduct punishable according to the Standing Orders of the Company. It is admitted that there are no standing orders in operation, as the Draft submitted by the Company, has not received the final sanction of Government as yet. Pending their finalisation, certain rules called "Disciplinary Action Procedure" are in operation since 16th October 1957. They are at Ext. P. 6. These are based on the Model Standing Orders given by the Government in Schedule No. 1 to the Mysore Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Rules 1951. There is no contention on behalf of the Complainant that these are not the operative Rules or that they should not be treated as such. On the other hand, relying on these as the operative Rules of procedure, the learned Advocate for Complainant urges that the procedure actually followed does not accord to that laid down in Ext. P. 6 and further that the act attributed to the complainant does not amount to misconduct as contemplated by the Rules in Ext. P. 6. So far as procedural aspect is concerned, I have already held that the whole enquiry is vitiated on account of the violation of the principles of natural justice. That is why I have not considered the other objections on that point. The second objection alone has, however, got to be considered as the question of misconduct is to be decided afresh on the basis of the evidence led before the Tribunal.

23. It is contended by Sri Nagesh Rao that the Complainant's act cannot amount either to (i) Wilful insubordination, or to (ii) Disorderly behaviour as contemplated by Rule 2 of Ext. P-6. That Rule enumerates the various acts of misconduct, which entail punishment including dismissal. Clause (a) of that Rule reads:

"Wilful insubordination or disobedience, whether alone or in combination with others, to any lawful and reasonable order of his superior."

Sri Nagesh Rao contends that no such order has been disobeyed by the Complainant. Let us examine this claim of his.

24. The background leading to the incident that took place on 7th August 1959, is practically admitted by the complainant barring the allegation that he used to go away from his work-spot. He admits having received the warning Ext. C-1, dated 31st July 1959 and another Ext. P-5 given on 7th August 1959, advising in his own interest to attend to the work allotted and not to leave the section without permission. He was possibly enraged at this. With Ext. P-5, he went to the office room of P.W. 1. This latter witness states that as soon as he came into the room, the complainant threw the memo on his table saying—"What is this Nonsense?" He said to PW-1. "I am not prepared to take any such Nonsense at your hands." It cannot be denied that Ext. P-5 was an order by a superior Officer viz., Manager Inspection, intended for being acted up to by the Complainant. It may be seen that it is actually couched in courteous language and in fact "requests" the Complainant to attend to the work allotted. It may be that the Complainant believed that he had already been following what was conveyed in Ext. P-5. Even then there was no reason for him to get upset.

25. The way in which he behaved with P.W. 1 and the words he uttered (as above said) show nothing but a defiant attitude against his superior and against the order Ext. P-5. Particularly his acts consisting of throwing the Memo P.W. 5 and its cover (Article 1) on the Table, later taking it up and tearing and crumpling them, and then flinging them both on the table and walking away from the place are all acts which are calculated to exhibit his utter defiance at the officer and at his order. This behaviour is not merely disrespectful. It is much more than that. It amounts to disobedience or even insubordination. There is no provocation nor the least justification for such an attitude. It needs no further explanation to show that all this was wilful. It is not understood how it is contended that the order Ext. P-5 is not lawful or reasonable. It is not suggested that it was beyond the competence of the Inspection Manager to issue that order or that the order was illegal, in any other way. Reasonable, the order certainly is. It merely requests the employee to do what any or every other employee is normally expected to do. I, therefore, hold that the complainant is guilty of the misconduct mentioned in clause (a) of Rule 2 of Ext. P. 6.

26. The second charge is under clause (h) of Rule 2. It reads :—

"Riotous or disorderly behaviour during working hours of the establishment or any act subversive of discipline."

The above words, according to Sri Nagesh Rao, indicate a violent quarrel or fight, or use of force or show of force. It may be so. But these are not all the indications that the words convey. There may be a disorderly behaviour of a less virulent type. At any rate, the behaviour of the Complainant is subversive of discipline. The flagrant defiance exhibited by the Complainant cuts at the root of discipline and orderliness. It may be that the Complainant's acts cannot be said to be riotous. But his behaviour can easily be classed as disorderly. That an employee should approach his superior and fling on his table an order issued by the Officer or that he should tear and crumple the order and throw it on the table is a behaviour which is anything but orderly. All these acts indicate violence may be violence to the paper and to normal behaviour. But they show that all along his attitude was menacing and disorderly. It is highly subversive of discipline. It comes within the purview of clause (h).

27. There is a decision of the Supreme Court where the facts were somewhat analogous. It is Orissa Cement Ltd. Vs Adikanda Sahu reported in 1960 I LLJ 518. Adikanda was a fitter in the Company. He abused Mr. Misra, the Labour Officer in filthy language. As a result of the enquiry held, an order of dismissal was passed against Adikanda. In the course of an application under S. 33, the Tribunal held that his conduct was subversive of discipline, but it took into consideration that the employee had offered an apology to Mr. Misra and also that he was a youngman of impulsive age. It, therefore, rejected the application filed under Sec. 33. This order was confirmed by the Appellate Tribunal. In an appeal to the Supreme Court it was held :—

“In such a case, if the appellant took the view that it should not keep in its employment a person who was capable of such indecent conduct, it would be justified in dismissing him.”

As for the apology, the Supreme Court was of the view that it was not unconditional and therefore, paid no value to it. It allowed the application by setting aside the decisions of the Appellate Tribunal.

28. The circumstances in the case on hand are almost similar to those in the above case. The behaviour of the complainant is equally reprehensible. The above quoted remarks apply to the present case with equal justification. On a careful consideration of all the facts and circumstances of this case, I hold that the complainant is guilty of misconduct as alleged.

29. The punishment of dismissal awarded by the management does not call for interference. In the question of punishment, the Tribunal should not ordinarily interfere, vide the decision of the Supreme Court in Caltex (India) Ltd. Vs. their Workmen, reported in 1960 II LLJ 12. In another case viz. Doom Dooma Tea Co. Vs. Assam Chaha Karmachari Sangh 1960 II LLJ 56, there is a clearer indication. The Supreme Court observes :—

“Normally the Awarding of ‘proper punishment’ for misconduct under the Standing Orders is the function of the Management, and unless there is valid justification, the Tribunal should be slow to interfere with the exercise of that function.”

There are no special reasons in this case. I therefore allow the punishment to stand.

30. The complaint is dismissed. No order as to costs. An award is passed accordingly.

IN THE MATTER OF AN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE BETWEEN THE
WORKMEN AND THE MANAGEMENT OF CIRCLE LUNCH HOME,
BASAVANAGUDI, BANGALORE-4.

Industry : Hotel.

District : Bangalore.

A W A R D.

1. The Government of Mysore in their Order No. LLH 431 LLD 59 dated 9th November 1959 referred an industrial dispute existing between the workmen and the management of Circle Lunch Home, Bangalore-4 to this Labour Court for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. XIV of 1947).

2. The points of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference are as follows.

1. Are the workmen justified in demanding the following wage rates ?

1. Cooks	...	Rs. 100 p.m.
2. Suppliers, Grinders, Coffee and Tea Makers	...	Rs. 55 p.m.
3. Cleaners	...	Rs. 35 p.m.

If not, to what other wage-rates are the affected workmen entitled and from what date?

2. Are the workmen justified in demanding 25 days' leave with wages per year? If not, to what other quantum of leave are the workmen entitled and from what date?

3. Are the workmen justified in demanding two sets of dresses per year to all the employees? If not, to what relief, if any, are the workmen entitled?

3. The Order of reference was taken on the file of this court and summonses were issued to the parties as usual. Both the parties put in their appearance and filed their respective statements.

4. The substance of the claim statement is that the second party hotel is situated in a busy section of the Gandhi Bazaar and is earning huge profits. But the service condition of the workers employed in the hotel is very bad. They are not paid adequate salaries. No leave facilities are provided. They are also not given any clothing as the clothes of the workers get easily spoiled while working. Hence they are entitled to the wage rates and other facilities as scheduled in the order of reference.

5. The second party in its counter statement contended that there is no industrial dispute existing between the parties and that the reference is bad in law. It is not earning huge profits as alleged by the union. The demands of the workers are excessive and exorbitant. The management pays adequate wages to the workers and in addition it also provides them with food and lodging. Hence they are not entitled to any of the reliefs prayed for.

6. On the pleadings of the parties the following issues were added to the points of dispute which are taken as issues framed.

1. Is there no industrial dispute in existence between the parties?

2. Is the union first party authorised to represent the workmen of II party. If not what is its effect?

7. This is a case wherein the Government of Mysore have referred an industrial dispute existing between the workmen and the management of Circle Lunch Home, on the points of dispute as scheduled therein. The disputes that have been referred, in between the same parties, are three in number. The present dispute relates to the demands of the workmen in respect of wages, leave and providing dresses.

8. Both the parties have filed their respective statements and the management of Circle Lunch Home has alleged 'inter alia' that there existed no industrial dispute and that issue has been heard and decided on 10th May 1960, holding that there existed and still exists an industrial dispute between the parties. Such objection had been raised in all the three cases and a common evidence had been adduced by both the parties and a common order has been passed. That order has been made a part of this award (Vide Annexure No. 1)

9. Arguments heard. The schedule to the order of reference contains 3 demands i.e., wage rates, 25 days leave with wages per year, and two sets of dresses per year to all the employees. I shall now take up these demands one by one for my consideration.

10. The union 1st party has demanded the following wage rates:—

1. Cooks Rs. 100 per month.
2. Suppliers, Grinders, Coffee and Tea Makers Rs. 55 per month.
3. Cleaners Rs. 35 per month,

11. The management has contended, that it is not in a prosperous condition nor is it making high profits. It is also paying adequate wages to its employees. The wage-rates claimed by the workers is in addition to free Boarding and Lodging. But there was no such claim in the notice of demands.

12. It is an admitted fact that every human being has got the same sort of pressure for bare necessities required for subsistence. But whenever the matter of fixing the basic minimum wages arises we have to take so many factors for consideration. Such as education and hygiene, etc., for the up keep of the required efficiency for the job. Such fixation required a huge voluminous, statistical data, but it is wanting in the present case.

13. Recently the Government of Mysore in their draft notification No. LLH 139 LMW 59 (v), dated 14th May 1960, have fixed the minimum rates of wages as given below payable to each class of employees employed in the residential hotels and eating houses. These rates would have been fixed by the Government of Mysore in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3 and by sub-section (2) of section 5 of the minimum wages Act, 1948 (Central Act XI of 1948) after considering all the aspects of the matter.

I. Manager	...	Rs. 4 per day.
II. Cook, Sweetmeat Maker	...	Rs. 2-50 nP. per day.
III. Coffee/Tea Maker, Server/Supplier/ Waiter/Bearer/Butler.		Rs. 2 per day.
IV. 1. Cleaner, 2. Grinder, 3. Peon/ Watchman, 4. Sweeper, 5. Office Boy, 6. Helper.		Rs. 1-75 nP. per day.
V. Clerk, Typist, Stenographer, Cashier, Store Keeper.		Rs. 75 per month.

14. It has also been mentioned in the said notification that where free food and lodging are provided a sum of Re. 1 per day may be set off against the above minimum wages payable to the workers.

15. I had an earnest consideration over this matter and I find that the above minimum wages as proposed to be fixed by the Government should be taken for fixing the wages of the employees of the second party hotel. I had also considered about the financial implication that would ensue by granting the above said wages and it is as under. The Cook and the Sweetmeat Maker will get Rs. 75 per month. The Coffee and Tea Maker, Supplier will get Rs. 60 per month, and the Cleaner will get Rs. 52-50 nP. per month. The Store-keeper would get Rs. 75 per month. This wage rates are of course subject to providing of free food and lodging. It is an admitted fact that in the second party hotel all the workers are provided with free food and lodging. So a sum of Rs. 30 should be set off against the above minimum wages being the cost of food and lodging. So the net wages payable would be as under :—

1. Cook ... Rs. 45 per month.
2. Coffee and Tea Maker and Server ... Rs. 30 per month.
3. Cleaner and Grinder ... Rs. 22-50 nP. per month.

16. By fixing the following wage rates the financial implication as per the wage bill for the month of November 1959, which is the last pay entry in the pay register produced, would be as follows :—

For the month of November 1959.

Sl. No.	Name	Designation	Wages paid	Proposed wages food & lodging	Difference
			Rs. nP.	Rs. nP.	Rs. nP.
	Sriyuths—
1	Parameshwara ...	Supplier ...	19 00	30 00	11 00
2	Ramachandra ...	Do ...	19 00	30 00	11 00
3	Sanjeeva Rao ...	Do ...	19 00	30 00	11 00
4	Ranganatha ...	Do ...	19 00	30 00	11 00
5	Subramaya ...	Do ...	15 00	22 50	7 50
6	Somappa ...	Do ...	18 00	22 50	4 50
7	Shankaranarayan ...	Do ...	18 00	22 50	4 50
8	Shivanna ...	Do ...	12 00	22 50	10 50
9	Narasimah ...	Do ...	10 00	22 50	12 50
10	Vijaya ...	Do ...	7 00	22 50	15 50
11	Linga ...	Do ...	7 00	22 50	15 50
	Total ...		163 00	277 50	114 50

17. Thus there would be an increase of Rs. 114-50 nP. in the monthly wage bill. For a year it would workout to about Rs. 1,324 only. This excess in context with the financial position of the hotel is not a very heavy financial burden which is not unbearable by the management of the hotel. No audited accounts have been filed.

18. The Proprietor has filed some statement showing the meagre profit of Rs. 69 and odd, but it seems that his accounts are not properly kept and it is not possible to run the hotel by getting the profits as shown by the proprietor.

19. Regarding the minimum wages it has become a settled fact that every employer should pay the employees the wages atleast to meet the basic necessities. Both the parties have failed to bring the evidence on record to show the comparative rates prevailing in such industries at Bangalore. So I was constrained to adopt the same rates of wages as proposed by the Government of Mysore to be fixed in its draft notification. I therefore adjudicate this point of reference and fix the following minimum wage rates.

	Without food and lodging.	With food and lodging.
1. Cook, ...	Rs. 75 per month	Rs. 45 per month
2. Supplier, Coffee & Tea Maker ...	Rs. 60 per month	Rs. 30 per month
3. Cleaners and Grinders ...	Rs. 54/50 nP. per mth.	Rs. 22/50 nP. per month

20. After fixing the above said minimum wages, the next question arises as to from which day the above wage rates should be ordered to be paid. The Union first party has demanded that the above wage rates should be brought into effect from the date of the demand notice dated 11th May 1959. This I find is not convenient or proper, for the management has to bear extra expenditure. The next alternative would be to order that the above minimum wage rates should be brought into effect from the date of publication of this award. I order accordingly that the above fixed minimum wages shall be brought into effect from the date of publication of this Award in the Gazette.

21. The next demand is about 25 days annual leave with wages. It is contended by the union that there are no leave facilities provided to the workmen in the second party concern. The workers require the above quantum of leave to facilitate them to go to their native places at least once in a year. As against this, the management has contended that if the above said quantum of leave is conceded it would jeopardise the business of the concern and the management would be put to a considerable loss and dislocation of work. The arguments of the management has some force. It is of course that some leave should be provided to the workers so that they may have some leisure to attend to their personal affairs. It is also admitted that the workers get one day leave in a week. The second party hotel is an establishment covered under the Shops and Establishment Act. The Shops and Establishment Act enjoins upon the managements of the shops and establishments to allow the workers employed by them to avail some leave with wages. When there is a statutory provision providing leave to the workers of the hotel second party I do not think at this time any separate leave should be ordered. The workers are entitled to the leave as provided in the Shops and Establishment Act.

22. The next and the last demand is about providing two sets of uniforms to all the employees of the second party. It is an admitted and well-known fact that the clothes of some workmen will be spoiled while working. The Cook and the Supplier should possess some set of clothes as there is every chance for them to get their clothes spoiled, while working. Hence I am of the opinion that this demand is not unjustified. I therefore direct that the management of the hotel should provide two sets of uniforms per year to Cooks, Servers and Coffee and Tea Makers. As for the rest one set of clothes should be provided per year. Each set of clothes should consist of one shirt, one cap and one pyjama or one dhoti of 5 yards. In the result I adjudicate all the issues framed in this case as above.

23. I pass the award in the above terms. I order no costs.

Preliminary Order.

1. Parties are heard. There are three cases pending for adjudication between the same parties. In all the three cases the management has raised the objection about the question of jurisdiction and it has been alleged that there existed no industrial dispute or it ceased to exist as an industrial dispute. So both the parties were directed to let in the evidence to the extent of jurisdictional matter. The question being common in all these three orders of reference a common order is to be passed and the same will be taken in the other cases also.

2. The management of the second party hotel has examined three witnesses on its behalf. On the other hand the union has examined two witnesses. Apart from the oral evidence the workers who are now working under the management of the second party hotel have filed their individual affidavits.

3. I had gone through the testimonies of the witnesses and it has been admitted by the proprietor himself that the workers, now working with him, have been recently engaged about 4 or 5 months ago. On the admission of this fact it is quite evident that the workers who had espoused the cause of the aggrieved workmen are not in the employment of the second party hotel at present. Hence the affidavits filed by these new entrants would be ineffective for the reason that they were not then in the employment of the second party hotel when the disputes had been raised by the then workers and the matter was taken up for conciliation and thereafter the Government was pleased to refer the same disputes for adjudication. Thus the disputes had taken the shape and character of industrial disputes at their inception and even on the subsequent stage.

4. The representative for the management had contended that the workers in the employment at present have dropped their support and the disputes, which had taken the shape of industrial disputes, have lost their character and again they have been reshaped into individual disputes. In support of his contention he has relied upon the case law 1959 II LLJ 348

'Hindu' Madras Vs. its working journalist and another. I had a perusal of that case law. It has been observed by his Lordship Justice Sri Balakrishna Ayyar that there should be a majority of workmen who espouse the cause of the aggrieved workers to convert the characteristic of the individual dispute into an industrial dispute and in order to seize the jurisdiction by the tribunals or the courts constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act. Such characteristic of the industrial dispute should remain throughout the pendency of the dispute till its final disposal by the court. Further it is also observed that the courts and the tribunals should take into consideration the subsequent events that occur during the pendency of the dispute and as such the question of jurisdiction has also to be considered in the context of the past and the present facts. Once the court may seize the jurisdiction on previous facts, but the same may not continue on the subsequent dates and for deciding this question of jurisdiction the court or the tribunals should view the subsequent events for its finding. During the pendency of the dispute if a majority of workmen has withdrawn the cause of those workers, which had been taken once by them, thus bringing the industrial dispute into individual dispute and then the court or the tribunals will be having no jurisdiction to proceed further, for under the Industrial Dispute Act the courts or the tribunals have got a limited jurisdiction on specific matters.

5. The above observation as has been made by his Lordship is to be followed in determining the fact whether the court has the jurisdiction to enter upon the matters for its determination. Such jurisdiction should continue all along till the final disposal of the case. But here in determining the question of jurisdiction under the Industrial Dispute Act it is to be seen whether the Industrial Dispute that existed at the time of reference is in continuation at the time of his final determination. In order to see whether there existed an industrial dispute, the important factor is whether a majority of workers or atleast an appreciable number of workers is still supporting the same cause, which has been taken once and has been made it a common cause, converting the individual disputes as industrial disputes.

6. Now I have to see whether there remains an appreciable number of workers still supporting the cause that has been taken up formerly by the workers. Here in the instant case most of or all most all old workers are not in the employment of the hotel as a result of their termination or some other reasons. Once the management terminated the services of 8 workers and secondly three and it was said there were 16 workers then working with the management. Thus there remained five workers in the employment. But what happened to those five workers it is not disclosed. It has come on record that all the present 13 workers are fresh recruits. It is alleged by the second party that these 13 workers newly recruited have filed the affidavits to the effect that they did not espouse the cause nor do they intend to continue it and hence there exists no industrial dispute between the parties.

7. The above contention of the management is apparently appealing, but when viewed in the context of the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act that argument falls on the ground. It has been defined in section 2 (s) of the Industrial Dispute Act that dismissed workers have also been defined as workers for a limited purpose. I have no hesitation to say that all these workers whose services have been terminated are also the workmen for the purpose of this proceeding. It has become now a settled rule of law that an appreciable number of workmen in the employment should espouse the cause of the aggrieved workers, to convert the individual dispute into an industrial dispute. By these decisions it follows that at the time of espousing the cause of a certain aggrieved workers of that concern or unit or establishment there should be an appreciable number of workmen of that union or establishment or concern in the employment for making that dispute as an industrial dispute but those aggrieved workers have been precluded from converting their individual dispute into industrial dispute, because then they will be no more in the employment of the concern. On the same principle if I view whether there exists an industrial dispute, I have to see how far the other party, alleging that there existed no industrial dispute, has proved that the dispute once referred as an industrial dispute for adjudication has lost its characteristic and has become an individual dispute. The management of the second party hotel has relied upon only on the affidavits and evidence of workmen of the 13 who are now in its employment. But there is no evidence or affidavit from the dismissed workers and those workers who were then present while the cause of those 8 workers and as well 3 workers had been taken up. According to the definition of workmen it means any person for purposes of any proceeding under this Act in relation to an industrial dispute includes a workman who has been dismissed, discharged or retrenched in connection with or as a consequence of that dispute, or whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute Now I have to see whether for purposes of this proceedings which are pending before this court whether those workers whose services have been terminated are the workmen or not. The definition is quite clear, for the purposes of any proceedings all the workers, whose services have been terminated in connection with or as a consequence of that dispute or whose dismissal, discharge or retrenchment has led to that dispute, are workmen. As such it is quite essential that all those workmen whose services have been terminated, discharged or retrenched should subscribe along with others in the matter of ousting the jurisdiction of the court when once it has been seized by it, by way of withdrawing the cause either through the union or individually.

8. In order to know whether a majority of [workmen has withdrawn the cause from further proceedings, it should be viewed in the context of this definition as per section 2 (s) of Industrial Disputes Act. To drop the proceedings from further prosecution the workers as defined under section 2 (s) of the Industrial Disputes Act should also file their affidavits or give evidence to the effect that they do not intend to pursue the matter thereafter. During the pendency of the proceedings if such workers have not filed any affidavits or have not given evidence to that effect and only those workers, who have been newly recruited, have spoken to that effect that they never intend to prosecute further, does not oust the jurisdiction of the tribunals or the Labour Courts once seized, because they themselves never form a majority. In the instant case the service of all previous workers have been terminated and the new recruits have been taken. The old employees have not filed any affidavits nor did they come into the witness box and give evidence to that effect. I am therefore of the opinion that the jurisdiction, once entertained, does not cease by the production of the affidavits and as well by the evidence of the new employees of the second party hotel, as their evidence is not considered to be unbiased.

9. The brief facts as have been narrated in the preceding paragraphs disclose that the old workers had submitted their demands and thereupon the cause of action had arisen. During the pendency of that cause of action the management terminated the services in the first instance of 3 workmen and subsequently 8 workmen. Thus it is clear that the management terminated almost all the workmen and in their places it has taken fresh and new recruits. This action of the management is not fair and the evidence given by the new recruits is not to be relied upon for the reasons that they are under the obligation of the management.

10. Accordingly I adjudicate issues 1 to 3 as above in favour of the first party. I hold that this court has still the jurisdiction to proceed further.

11. Accordingly I pass the order holding that this court has still the jurisdiction to proceed further and there exists an industrial dispute between the parties. I direct the parties to adduce the evidence on merits. The file is posted to 30th June 1960, for adducing the evidence. The same order be taken on other files L.C.R. No. 158—59.

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute between the Workmen and Management of Kapila Textile Mills Ltd., Nanjangud.

Industry: Textile Mills.

District: Mysore.

AWARD.

1. The Government of Mysore, in their Order No. LLH 117 ILD 58, dated 31st July 1958, referred an Industrial Dispute existing between the workmen and the Management of Kapila Textile Mills Ltd., Nanjangud, to this Labour Court for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (C) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. XIV of 1947).

2. The points of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference are as follows:—

(1) Whether the management are justified in not taking the staff members for work from the day the Mill was restarted i.e., 24th March 1958? If so, to what relief these staff members are entitled to and up to what period?

(2) Whether the strike by the staff members from 11th November 1957 as per their notice, dated 6th November 1957 is legal? If so, are they entitled to the usual wages for the strike period from 11th November 1957?

3. On receipt of this order of reference both parties were directed to file the statements. The union first party prayed for making the Official Liquidator as a party to the dispute because the Mills had gone into liquidation and the Hon'ble High Court of Mysore, Bangalore had appointed the Deputy Registrar of the High Court as the official liquidator. Accordingly a notice had been issued to the official liquidator and on whose behalf Sri V. L. Narasimha Murthy Advocate filed the counter statement. As per the Managing Directors of the Mills they did not appear and no statement has been filed on their respective behalf.

4. The substance of the claim statement is that the management fell into arrears from August 1957 with regard to the wages to the workers and salaries to the staff members. The management also issued a retrenchment notice to 10 members of the staff which was illegal. Hence on 6th November 1957 a strike notice was issued to the management and a strike was staged from 11th November 1957. The conciliations held in this behalf were not successful. Further it is alleged that on 24th March 1958 the Mills was restarted and on that day the management refused to provide work to the staff members, with a malafide intention.

5. In the counter statement the official liquidator contends that the strike was neither legal nor legitimate. The Mills was closed on account of the inability for the management of the Mills and the very fact the liquidation proceedings have taken place is sufficient to establish that the closure effected by the Mills was bona fide. On the day when the Mills restarted some of the staff members came to resume duty and they were entertained and the rest stayed away. The management did not refuse to provide employment to the staff members on 24th March 1958 as alleged by the union. The staff members are not entitled to any of the reliefs prayed for by them.

6. In the rejoinder the first party has reiterated its contentions and has prayed for an award in terms of the statement of claim.

7. On the pleadings the following issues have been framed on 19th November 1959.

- (1) Is the order of reference illegal and invalid?
- (2) Is there no industrial dispute existing between the parties?
- (3) Whether the strike by the staff members from 11th November 1957 as per their strike notice is legal and if so are they entitled to the usual wages and provident fund contribution for the strike period from 11th November 1959?
- (4) Whether the management are justified in not taking the staff members for work from the day the Mill was restarted that is 24th March 1958? If so to what relief are these staff members entitled to and up to what period?

8. The issues 1 and 2 relate to the question of jurisdiction and hence the parties were directed to lead the evidence only to the extent of the issues (1) and (2). On the subsequent dates the case was adjourned on the representation that there was a move for compromise. But after a long time it has been said by the parties that there was no expectation of any settlement between the parties. So the union examined one witness and thereby concluded its evidence in full. The Advocate for the second party prayed for calling for the file regarding conciliation of this dispute from the office of the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Mysore. On the subsequent day the Advocate for the union appeared and went away, but he did not turn up later. Therefore argument was heard.

9. The main facts of the case have been already narrated in the preceding paragraphs. In the instant case there are three points of disputes that have to be adjudicated, firstly whether this court has jurisdiction, secondly whether there was a legal strike and lastly whether the management of the Mills was justified in refusing to provide work to the staff members.

10. Now I shall take up the question of jurisdiction. The management of the Mills has not proved that there existed no Industrial Dispute and the staff members have not expounded the cause. But on the other hand it has been proved by both documentary and oral evidence of the first party that almost all the staff members had become the members of the union and they had resolved that the union should take up the cause of the retrenched workers and as well for the delay that has been caused in disbursing the arrears of wages. Further the union has issued a notice of strike giving the facts on what basis the staff had intended to go on strike and one of those grounds relates to the matter of retrenchment of 10 workers. This matter is undoubtedly a question of industrial dispute. The staff members had challenged the action of the management of the Mills in respect of retrenching 10 workers. As per section 12(5) of the Industrial Disputes Act the Conciliation Officer had endeavoured to settle the disputes, but he failed in his conciliation and therefore he submitted a failure report praying for a reference. These facts have been proved by the evidence let in by the first party union. The management of the second party mills has not proved about the non-existence of the industrial dispute and further no cogent reason was shown in rebuttal that there existed no industrial dispute. Under these circumstances I have a reason to believe that the Government had a good reason to form the opinion that there existed an industrial dispute. On what basis it has referred the dispute that existed between the parties. I therefore hold that the reference that has been made by the Government of Mysore under its notification No. LLH 117 ILD 58, dated 31st July 1958 is legal and valid. Further it has been proved by the evidence that has been let in by the union that there still exists an industrial dispute between the workmen and the management of the Mills. Accordingly I adjudicate both the issues 1 and 2 as above holding that this court has jurisdiction.

11. The next questions are in respect of the justification or legality of the strike and also justification of refusal in providing work. In the instant case the learned Advocates for the parties had an earnest desire to settle the dispute outside the court. Because the Mills has gone into liquidation and that proceeding is still pending before the Hon'ble High Court of Mysore, Bangalore. It has become a proved and established fact that the second party Mills has been liquidated for the simple reason that the second party had no capacity of running the Mills and its financial position had been completely wrecked and it was not in a position to pay back the loans taken and to return the shares back. It has also come on record as proved and established fact that the management of the Mills was so incapable of even to bear the expenses in respect of the wages and salaries payable to its workmen. Such correspondence was also taken place in between the then Managing Director and the union. The management has taken its effort to pay the arrears at least by instalments. Even then it was not possible for the management to clear the arrears. This was the ground for which the staff members of the Mills disgusted and distressed as their salaries and wages were not disbursed and further they had no expectation of the payment of their wages in the near future. Apart from this the management had also retrenched some of the staff members and the staff members had become aggrieved and resolved that the management should be forced to reinstate those 10 retrenched workers.

12. Now I shall take up the question of strike. It is an admitted fact that all the workers including the staff members had struck work on 11th November 1957 as per their strike notice, dated 6th November 1957. The point to be decided at this stage is that whether that strike was legal. The contention of the union was that the management of the second party Mills had retrenched 10 staff members illegally without justification. Secondly the Mills did not pay the wages from the month of August 1957. The reasons that have been assigned for staging a strike apparently seem valid, because the management of the Mills has admitted this fact that the arrears of wages and salaries from the month of August and onwards were not paid to the workers, for the Mills was running in a financial crisis and it was struggling hard to adjust the matters and was willing to pay the arrears by instalments. The contention of the union is that the management had failed to pay the wages in time and it has not cleared the arrears and therefore the union had a reason to strike work. I had an earnest consideration of this aspect of the question. The workers had undoubtedly a right to demand payment of wages and clearance of the arrears. But by the by when I look upon the other aspect of the matter it has also become a proved fact that the management of the Mills had an earnest desire to pay the wages and clear the arrears atleast by instalments. But its financial position was so worsened due to mismanagement or for some other reasons that it had become incapacitated to pay even the wages and clear the arrears of its workmen. These facts about the financial instability of the Mills have been brought to the notice of the union. The union would have taken a reasonable and practical decision on the facts that existed before staging a strike. As per the recovery of the arrears the statute has established a machinery to give relief to the aggrieved workers. According to the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act civil courts have been empowered to give relief to the distressed. The same action has been subsequently taken by the workers by approaching the authority constituted under the Payment of Wages Act for redress. There was no justification for the workers and the staff to stage a strike for the recovery of the wages, because the staff members did not exhaust all the means for settling the difference. Secondly that it has proved by the record that the Mills was not sound and strong in its finance.

13. The second reason that has been assigned for staging a strike on 11th November 1957 is in respect of retrenchment. The management has produced the notices that have been issued to the workers and to the Government as per the provisions of the Industrial Dispute Act. The reasons for retrenchment have been given stating that the Mills found them superfluous and redundant. The justification of this ground has been proved by the subsequent events that had ensued later and the Mills was forced to go into liquidation. On these grounds the strike that has been taken out on 11th November 1957 was not proper and there was no proper justification for the staff members to stage a strike when the Mills was running in a precarious condition. Further the management found a good cause in closing the Mills for a certain period up to 24th March 1958. W.W.1 has not given the evidence that from the day of strike up to the starting of the Mills on 24th March 1958 the staff members had tried to attend the work in the Mills. But it has been said that the Mills was closed and the workers had gone away. This statement of the witness indirectly supports the view that the administration of the Mills had been crippled and it was in a deteriorating condition.

14. The learned Advocate for the management had pointed out that the union did not follow the proper procedure that has been laid down under the Industrial Dispute Act. No notice in proper form had been issued. The notice that has been issued on 6th November 1957 was not in a prescribed form and secondly that after a short period the workers had gone on strike. It was obligatory on the part of the workers to give a reasonable period to the Mills before staging the strike, for the reason that as per section 22 of Industrial Dispute Act, the Mills was a public utility concern and for which a notice of strike for 14 days would have been issued.

15. This contention is not correct, because as per section 22 of the Industrial Dispute Act, the Government has not notified that the Mills was a public utility concern, nor did the management of the Mills produce any such notification declaring the second party Mills as a public utility concern. When it has not been declared as a public utility concern the non-observing of the provisions of section 22 of the Industrial Dispute Act would not make the strike illegal. It has been admitted by the second party Mills that the union had issued a notice of strike and for that it had given a reply. After 5 days the workers and the staff members had gone on strike. Thus I do not find that there was any illegality in staging a strike. As per justification I may say that the conditions that were prevailing in the Mills were not such as to say that the management of the Mills was mala fide in its action of non-payment of wages and in delaying for clearing the arrears. Further the union, had taken action against the management for the recovery of the arrears bringing a suit before the authority under the payment of Wages Act. It was a proper course for the workers and the staff members, but staging a strike at that stage was unwarranted. It was however to be seen that despite the order passed by the competent authority under the Payment of Wages Act for the recovery of the arrears with some compensation the management was unable even then to pay the arrears and for that the management had also taken time to pay the arrears and even then it has failed. These facts are evident that the financial position of the Mills had become ruinous due to mismanagement or for some other reasons and so the Mills was not able to pay the arrears. Thus I conclude that the workers may be right in staging a strike, but there was no justification for them to stage a strike on 11th November 1957 and onwards, up to 24th March 1958 for the reasons as said above and hence I hold that the staff members are not entitled to the wages for the strike period from 11th November 1957. This is my finding on issue No. 3.

16. Now adverting to the other question of justification in not taking the staff members for work from the day of restarting from 24th March 1958. The contention of the union is that all the staff members had gone to attend the work on 24th March 1958 but the Mills had refused to provide work. On the other hand it has been contended by the management that some of the staff members had come to work on the day of restarting, but some did not come. They stayed away voluntarily and therefore the management had started its work with the help of those who had come for duty and with others. The witness for the union has admitted in his testimony that some of the staff members had gone to attend the work and they have been taken. The management of the Mills had issued notices to the union asking it to direct its members to resume duty on the dates specified in the notices. The union wanted some clarification and therefore it had sent reply to the notice to the management asking clarification. The management of the Mills had issued some notices to the union and the copies of them have been filed. The first notice was issued informing the workers and the staff about restarting of the Mills from 22nd March 1958. That has been cancelled through the letter dated 21st March 1958. Again a notice has been issued dated 18th March 1958 intimating that the Weaving Department would resume work from 25th of this month. Another letter dated 24th March 1958 has been sent informing that the Mills would start on 24th March 1958, Monday, departmentwise as follows. A copy of which has been given below for appreciation.

NOTICE.

The Mill will restart on the 24th March 1958, Monday, departmentwise as follows :—

Blow Room Card room General	...	24th March 1958 3-30 P. M.	II Shift
Waste and Willow Work-shop Mechanical		25th March 1958
Electrical Folding Frames,
Spinning Roller Covering	...	26th March 1958 3-30 P. M.	II Shift
Reeling	...	28th March 1958
Winding and Weaving	...	29th March 1958

182

Working Hours

I Shift

... 7 A.M. to 11 A.M.

11-30 A.M. to 3-30 P.M.

II Shift

... 3-30 P.M. to 7-30 P.M.

8 P.M. to 12 P.M.

17. By the perusal of this document it becomes clear that the management has given the details for the restarting of the departments with dates and timings. The workers and the staff members would have attended their duty on those fixed dates. But some of them have resumed work, the others did not. The union has given the reason that those workers did not resume work because the union had asked the explanation about the timings and shifts on which the workers and the staff members had to attend. This plea is not sound. When the Mills was itself running in loss and had to close for a short period and further the notices have been issued by the management one on 18th March 1958, 21st March 1958 intimating about restarting of the departments and the shifts to be started. As per the version of the union the management refused to provide work to the staff members is incorrect, because the witness W.W. 1 Sri M. V. Nagesha Rao who is the employee of the Mills has admitted in his deposition that some have been taken to work. Nearly 30 had joined the duty. But as for the rest the management refused work. All the notices that have been issued indicate that the management was willing to allow all the employees to resume their duties unreservedly. The union did not show the reason why the management of the Mills discriminated in between the staff members, some having been admitted in the employment and some refused. In the absence of such explanation the story of the second party Mills seems correct. Further it should be borne in mind that the Mills had restarted on 24th March 1958 and one or two months later it has run into liquidation and the official liquidator had been appointed by the Hon'ble High Court of Mysore, Bangalore. Under these circumstances I do not find any reason convincing that the management should be directed to pay the wages for the period from the day of restarting to the date of liquidation. It has become hard to the Mills even to pay the arrears and the compensation that has been awarded by the authority under the payment of Wages Act, for the entire Mills has gone fully in liquidation and the liquidation proceedings are still pending. Under these circumstances I do not find myself in a position to adjudicate this issue in favour of the union first party.

18. Lastly I have to say that the claims of the staff members require sympathetic consideration. But the critical situation of the Mills and the financial instability did not allow me to direct the management to pay the wages for the strike period and for the period of unemployment. Accordingly I adjudicate this issue No. 4, as above.

19. In the result I dismiss the order of reference. No costs.

IN THE MATTER OF AN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE BETWEEN THE WORKMEN AND THE MANAGEMENT OF HUVINAKADU ESTATE, KUTTA, SOUTH COORG.

Industry: Estate.

District: Coorg.

AWARD.

1. The Government of Mysore, in their Order No. LLH 568 LLD 59, dated 10th March 1960 referred an Industrial Dispute existing between the Workmen and the Management of Huvinakadu Estate, South Coorg, to this Labour Court for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (C) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act No. XIV of 1947).

2. The points of dispute as scheduled in the order of reference are as follows:

(1) Whether the dismissal of worker Sri Abdulla Maistry by the Management of Huvinakadu Estate, Kutta, is justified?

(2) If not, to what relief is the workmen entitled?

3. After registering the reference summonses were issued to the parties for filing their statements and many adjournments have been given, but the union failed to submit its statement. However I directed the management to submit its statement.

4. As per the direction the management of the second party filed its statement stating that Abdulla Maistry was an employee under its management and in the absence of the Superintendent the said Abdulla Maistry had beaten one of the co-workers, a cartman, by name Sanna while the cartman was performing the duties assigned to him by Mr. P. B. Menon who was then in charge of the estate. The said Sanna had submitted a complaint to and the Superintendent had taken action against the said Abdulla Maistry by issuing a show cause notice, charge-sheet and holding a regular enquiry. As the result of the enquiry the enquiring officer was satisfied that the misconduct had been proved and it was deemed fit to pass the dismissal order for the misconduct committed by the said maistry.

5. The charge against the said maistry was that on 19th July 1959, he assaulted one of the workers within the estate, being indifferent and indolent, never caring for the presence of the officers in charge. The said maistry also abused in vulgar language and created a hindrance in the performance of the estate work.

6. As per Section 23 of the Industrial Disputes (Mysore) Rules of 1957, I had directed the second party to adduce the evidence and submit the documents pertaining to the enquiry held. As per the direction the second party filed all the documents pertaining to the charge levelled and the enquiry proceedings in respect of those charges. Besides this documentary evidence the second party estate has also examined, one witness who is the Accounts Officer of the Estate and who also happened to be one of the persons who were present at the time of the enquiry and his name is Sri N. P. Thampe.

7. I had a perusal of the entire record. The main allegation against the said Abdulla Maistry is that on 19th July 1959 he was on leave and he had put up in the labour quarters. While one cartman Sanna was working in removing the dead body of a bafellow the said Abdulla Maistry came out from his lane and addressed Sanna with vulgar words and thereafter gave some blows on the cheek. Further he also abused him in all the vulgar languages.

8. It has been contended by the management that these allegations have been substantiated and fully proved by the evidence that has been given by the persons who were present on the spot. Those witnesses have been first examined in the absence of the said maistry because the said Maistry did not appear while those witnesses have been examined. However the management had thought it advisable to give further chance for cross-examination. One opportunity was provided to the said Maistry and he was asked to cross-examine those witnesses. But the said Maistry did not cross-examine those witnesses and on the other hand he examined his own witnesses. Further it is said that after recording the statements of those witnesses the management had gone through them and arrived to the conclusion that the misconduct alleged has been proved and as per the standing orders of the estate the punishment was dismissal.

9. In the instant case I have to see whether there was a proper enquiry and there was an instance of unfair labour practice and victimization. It has been observed by the Supreme Court in so many cases that when there was a domestic enquiry held by the management and the punishment, has been imposed on the incumbents the Labour Courts or the Tribunals should not interfere in the finding of the domestic tribunal, provided there is a want of good faith, or there is an instance of unfair labour practice or victimization, when the management has been guilty of a basic error or violated the principles of natural justice and when on the materials the finding is completely baseless or perverse. In the present case the first party union has not taken any sort of interest to put forth its own views. No challenge has come forth on behalf of the union or the workers. In the absence of such statement or contention it has become very hard for me to comment on the record produced by the management and as well to comment on the evidence that has been tendered by one Sri Thampe, the Accounts Officer. By the perusal of the present record it is disclosed that the show cause notice was issued, a charge-sheet was given and the incumbent was asked to be present before the enquiring officer to stand the trial. But the incumbent did not choose the chance of standing a trial. The management has also given a notice of such enquiry to be held to the Union and it has also allowed one of the workers to be present as observer during the enquiry. Explanation has been sought from the incumbent and he has been allowed to cross-examine the witnesses for the complainant and further an opportunity has been offered to examine the defence witnesses. All the procedure for holding the enquiry has been fully observed and on the evidence that has come on record during the domestic enquiry it has taken the decision that the incumbent should be dismissed for the misconduct of disorderly behaviour before the officers; causing unsafety to the other workers of the estate. In short I did not find myself any such evidence by which I have to attribute that the management had an ulterior motive to victimize the workman and had resorted to unfair labour practice.

10. As I have already said that the union was passive throughout in spite of that the management of the second party estate had sent a copy of its own statement to the union for reply. But it never cared to be present and to submit the claim statement. In such cases I should not imagine what it is not on the record that the management had acted with ulterior motive, resorted to unfair labour practice and there was a want of good faith and it has arrived to a conclusion which was baseless and perverse. Thus I conclude that under the present circumstances the order of reference should be dismissed for want of prosecution on behalf of the union and also on the record that has been produced on behalf of the management of the estate.

11. Accordingly I pass the award dismissing the order of reference. I order no costs.

Dictated and corrected by me.

PART IV

Section 2-B.

MYSORE ACTS AND ORDINANCES AND ORDERS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION BY THE GOVERNOR

NOTIFICATION.

No. FD 66/SRS 60, dated Bangalore, the 11th January 1961 (Pushya 21, Saka Era 1932).

In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Mysore is pleased to make the following further amendments to the Mysore Civil Services Rules, namely:—

In the said Civil Services Rules,

I. In Rule 329,

(i) for clause (c), substitute the following clause, namely:—

“(c) Government, in the case of Gazetted Officers, and Head of the Department or a Gazetted Officer subordinate to him not lower in rank than the Principal District Officer of the Department competent to fill up the appointments vacated by the retiring Government servants, in the case of Non-Gazetted Officers, shall be competent to sanction pensions. Such authority shall, after due consideration of the facts of the case and having due regard to the provisions of Rule 289, record on the application its orders as to whether the service has been satisfactory and is approved for the grant of full pension admissible under the rules, or whether the service has not been thoroughly satisfactory and what reduction should, for that reason, be made from the full pension and/or gratuity admissible under the rules. Before forwarding the application with its orders to the Audit Officer, the pension sanctioning authority shall obtain, from the officer concerned, the declaration in terms of the Note Below Rule 338 and enclose it with the application. In cases in which it may not be possible to obtain and send the said declaration along with the application, it shall be sent to the Audit Officer separately at least a fortnight before the date of retirement of the Government servant.

Note 1.—In the case of Gazetted Officers, the pension papers will be routed to the Audit Officer through the Finance Department which sanctions their pension and Death-cum-Retirement Gratuity.

Note 2.—The power vested in the Chief Secretary to Government under this clause will be exercised by the Deputy Secretary to Government, General Administration Department."

(ii) after clause (d), insert the following as clause (e), namely:—

"(e) The pension sanctioning authority has the special responsibility of ensuring that the application in Form 7 with his orders is sent to the Audit Officer in time enough to enable him to issue the pension payment order not later than the date on which the Government servant is due to retire."

II. For rule 335, substitute the following rule, namely:—

"335 (1) On receipt of the pension papers passed on to him under the provisions of Rules 329 or 332, the Audit Officer shall apply the requisite checks and record his audit encasement in Form 7, showing the total period of qualifying service which has been verified and accepted for the grant of pension and/or gratuity, the amount and the date from which it/they is/are admissible, etc. If the pension is payable in his circle of audit, he shall thereafter prepare the pension payment order on the basis of the orders of the pension sanctioning authority and the audit encasement, but shall not issue it more than a fortnight in advance of the date on which the Government servant is due to retire. The fact of issue of the pension payment order shall be promptly reported to the pension sanctioning authority, and the pension papers no longer required, returned to him.

(2) If the pension is to be paid in another circle of audit, the Audit Officer shall send a copy of the pension application with the orders of the sanctioning authority and his audit encasement, along with the last pay certificate, if received, to the Audit Officer of that circle who shall prepare the necessary pension payment order and take further action as indicated in clause (1) above.

Notes.—If the pension papers are plainly incorrect or incomplete, the Audit Officer shall return them promptly for correction or explanation.

(3) The Audit Officer shall record briefly in the column reserved in Form 7, his reasons for disallowing any service claimed. Any other disallowances should be recorded in the audit encasement on the third page with reasons therefor."

III. Omit Rules 336, 337 and 349.

IV. For clause (2) of Rule 338, substitute the following clause, namely,—

“(2)(a). In case where a portion of qualifying service at the end has remained unverified at the time of issue of the pension payment order by the Audit Officer, due to the fact that the pension application was sent to the Audit Officer before his date of retirement, the Audit Officer will authorise the pension provisionally in the first instance.

(b) If after the pension application in Form 7 has been forwarded to the Audit Officer, any event occurs which has a bearing on the amount of pension admissible, the fact shall be promptly reported to the Audit Officer by the pension sanctioning authority. “(V) When Government moneys in the custody of a Government Officer are paid into the Treasury or the Bank, the Head of the Office making such payments should compare the Treasury Officer's or the Bank's receipt on the challan or his pass book with the entry in the Cash Book before attesting it and satisfy himself that the amounts have been actually credited into the Treasury or the Bank. THE MYSORE RESOURCES AND-ECONOMY COMMITTEE.

The Resources & Economy Committee has been constituted by the Government for a study of the State's financial position and problems and for recommending measures to enforce economy in Government expenditure and to raise additional resources for the Third Five Year Plan.

2 The Committee appeals to the public for their valuable suggestions and advice and invites their co-operation in assessing the trends of public opinion in the State on the several aspects covered by the investigation entrusted to it. In order to focus attention on the more important matters having a bearing on the terms of reference to the Committee, the following Questionnaire has been framed and is issued to the public for eliciting their considered views and opinions.

3 It is open to the public to enlighten the Committee either in the form of replies to the specific questions framed or in general terms in respect of all or any of the questions on which they may wish to communicate their ideas and suggestions.

4 The Committee will be grateful the expression of public views and opinions in response to this Questionnaire, and request that replies thereto be sent so as to reach the Office of the Resources & Economy Committee, Room No. 360, IIIrd Floor, Vidhna Soudha, Bangalore, on or before Monday the 20th February 1961.

Questionnaire.

1. Are there any specific Government activities-functions schemes—establishments, the expenditure on which is, in your opinion, either wasteful unproductive or ineffective, and may be avoided or reduced.

2. Are there any items of 'LUXURY' expenditure or expenditure of unusual nature, particularly in the Government, Hospitality-Organisation, and instances of use of costly furniture and equipment in Government offices and official residences, which in your opinion may either be cut out or reduced.

3. What are your views regarding the Reorganisation of the existing Divisions, Districts and Taluks in the State? Of the two patterns viz. (1) larger sized Districts and Taluks serving as viable administrative units and (2) smaller and compact areas, with a Taluk corresponding to a development block, and a District to an aggregate of 4-5 such blocks; which do you consider is better from the point of view of economy—efficiency in administration and public convenience. If you favour the latter pattern, do you consider a combination and merging of the revenue and development functions feasible at the village and taluk levels also.

4. Is a decentralisation of more powers from the Government and the Departmental levels to the District level conducive to greater speed and efficiency in Government work and economy in expenditure. Is not really any kind of decentralisation scheme largely ineffective in the absence of a convention and a self denying ordinance on the part of the higher authorities to desist from interference in the day-to-day work of lower offices, even in matters which are entirely within the latter's competence or have already been finally disposed of.

5 Do you consider that there is scope for a simplification of the methods or work and organisation in Government offices on the lines generally of the working of commercial and business offices and houses? If so, please indicate specifically the Departments of Government or particular offices or activities the work in which may be approximated to the methods and procedures followed by business offices.

6 Are there any overlapping functions or schemes in any Department of Government generally, and in the sphere of social service in particular, the removal of which will result in a sizeable reduction in expenditure?

7 Is it a fact that a disproportionate amount of time in Government offices is spent, to the detriment of public business, in dealing with personal questions relating to staff, such as pay, leave, transfer, pension, etc. Is any rationalisation of service rules or simplification of Financial & Account Codes and procedures called for in order to prevent avoidable loss of public time in Government offices.

8 On what basis may in your opinion the work of the different categories of Government employees be standardised for determining what is called the 'Work-load'. In regard to items which are not susceptible of standardisation, what, on the analogy of similar work in Commercial and Business offices, may be taken as the criterion for determining a full day's work.

9 Are you in favour of the establishment of an Economy Cell in each spending Department under a Financial Adviser for keeping continuous watch over the flow of departmental expenditure and for tendering financial advice to the Head of the Department, any over-ruling of such advice by the Head of the Department being required to be reported to Government in the Finance Department for a ruling.

10 Is the number Government holidays capable of further reduction.

11 Are there among the Government offices in the State any which are intermediate between higher and lower offices and are serving only as a channel of official correspondence between them? the abolition of which would lessen Government expenditure without any appreciable loss of efficiency in administration.

Is there real justification for the continuance of the offices of (1) Divisional Commissioners, (2) Revenue Sub Division Offices, (3) Assistant Superintendents of Police, (4) Superintendent Engineers, (5) Circle Conservator of Forests.

12 Is the work done by officers such as Joint Secretaries to Government and Joint Directors in some of the Departments, commensurate with the expenditure incurred on their salaries and establishments?

13 In regard to the category of Deputy Secretaries and Deputies to the Heads of Departments, is there scope for reduction in their number consistently with efficiency and quick despatch of work.

14 Do you agree in the suggestion to abolish the category of Government employees called Home Orderlies.

15 Of the recommendations made by Sri Gorwala in his report on the Mysore Administration, how many have been implemented so far and with what result

16 Have any ratios been fixed in the Departments and offices of Government of:—

- (1) Gazetted to non-gazetted staff.
- (2) Executive to subordinate staff.
- (3) Supervisory to clerical staff and in regard to the latter of Ist to IIInd Division and
- (4) Class IV employees to total staff;

If so, are there offices or department in which the prescribed ratios have been exceeded in any respect? If no such ratios are fixed, what in your opinion should be the proportion between the different categories of staff in the interest of economical and efficient administration.

17 Now that the public transport system in the State has developed, and any place even in the remote parts can be reached easily and quickly by means of public conveyance, is there any justification to provide touring officer with Government conveyances at considerable initial and recurring cost to Government? What do you say to the withdrawal of all such vehicles, except in regard to officers who have emergent work to do in, as the Police and Public Health Departments.

18 Are there among the rates of Travelling Allowance any, which offend the principle that T. A. should not be a source of profit? In view of the recent rule providing officers on duty with rent-free accommodation in Travellers Bungalows and Inspection Lodges, can the rates of Daily Allowance be proportionately reduced.

19 Among the existing categories of allowances to Government servants vis., Special Pay, Deputation allowance, Conveyance Allowance, Specialist Allowance, Examination Allowance etc., are there any which, in your view, may be abolished or reduced.

20 Frequent and long tours of officers for attending the huge number of Conferences, Seminars and Meetings, both in and outside State is one of the reasons for the increase of expenditure on T.A. from year to year. Have you any suggestions for restricting the frequency of tours of officers or of the number of officers of the same Departments that may attend any one conference or meeting, whereby the expenditure on T. A. could be kept within reasonable limits.

21 The abolition of the State's Upper House (Legislative Council) has been suggested from time to time. Do you agree in the suggestion.

22 In regard to supplies of stationery and equipment made by the Government Stationery Department, do you agree that the receiving Department should pay for all supplies in cash. What are the safeguards which you consider should be adopted to prevent abuse of the power to make local purchases of consumable stores.

23 What are privileges and concessions now enjoyed by Government servants in the several Departments of Government which may be discontinued or scaled down in the interest of economy.

24 Since the recent concession of free education for the children of parents with an income of Rs. 1,200 p.a. and less, is not enjoined under the Constitution and the extra expenditure to Government in the form of increased grants-in-aid to aided schools is likely to be substantial, may not the concession be restricted to (1) children of parents drawing less than Rs. 500 p.a. and (2) children attending Government schools only.

25 In regard to the execution of large projects, are you of the view that the contract system is more expeditious or economical as compared to the method of executing them departmentally or on job work basis.

26 In view of the need to reduce un-employment in the country how should, according to you, the outlay on large irrigation or industrial projects and constructions be planned so as on the whole to be labour-intensive rather than capital-intensive.

27 In regard to the maintenance of State-Fund Roads, is the system of departmental gangs to be preferred to the contract system in point of effectiveness of work or economy in expenditure.

28 Is there, in your opinion any needless expenditure on ornamentation or the extensive use of costly building materials like steel, cement etc. in the construction of Government or Departmental buildings of a functional nature like schools, dispensaries etc., which may be avoided by adopting simple but economical type designs under a rational building policy.

29 Has a Technical Audit Cell in the Public Works Department been established as suggested by Sri Gorwala—If so, has there been any significant improvement in the execution of Projects or economy in expenditure.

30 What, in your opinion, should be done:—

- (1) To attract the right type of recruit to the several categories of Government employment;
- (2) To improve the quality of work of Government employees by a scheme of training or refresher courses etc., and
- (3) To make the employee give of his best to Government under a scheme, if need, be of incentives and rewards for good and efficient service.

31 To overcome the shortage of technical personnel in the several Government Departments and for minimising the pension charges, would you advise the raising of the age of superannuation of technical staff in the Engineering, Medical, Education and other Departments from 55 to 60

32 National Statistical Surveys show that as a result of the 1st and 2nd Five Years Plans, the per capita income in the country has risen by Rs. 42 per annum and that the standard of life of the people in general, and in the rural area in particular, has risen. A redistribution of the additional income generated by the plans (1) as between the urban and rural area, and (2) within each such area, as between the several income groups, is also seen to have taken place. In the light of this :—

- (1) What are the sectors in the State's economy which in your opinion have been benefitted most by the two plans.
- (2) Has there been any rise in the real income of the people and if so, what is the distribution of the same among the different classes of people.
- (3) To what extent has there been increased consumption or savings among the upper, middle and lower classes.
- (4) How have the two Plans affected the problem of unemployment in the State. Is there in your opinion any significant improvement in the condition of self-employed artisans and craftsman in the villages.

33 In view of the estimated rise in national income and per capita income as a result of the Plans, and the redistribution of the national income as between the urban and rural areas in the State, what, in your opinion, is the added taxable capacity in each case generally which can be tapped for improving the resources for the 3rd plan.

34 In particular your views are invited regarding the scope for stepping up taxation in respect of the following items relating to Land revenue viz :—

- (1) Reduction in the period of currency of Resttlement from 30 to 10 years.
- (2) Taxation of unearned land and property incomes.
- (3) Enhancement of Water-rate and Betterment levies.

35 Has, in your opinion, the working of the State's Agricultural Income Tax Act reached the stage when (1) it could be extended to cover the income from all agricultural products, instead of plantation and selected commercial crops only; and (2) the rate of tax may be steepened further at the top levels.

36 Is the working of the State's Sales Tax Act causing in your view any undue inconvenience or hardship to the assesses? If so, what are your suggestions for removing the same.

37 In regard to the scheme of Sales Tax levy, what is your opinion regarding the Taxation Enquiry Commission's recommendations (1) to lower the taxable limit to Rs. 5,000, (2) to levy the tax at multipoint at a low rate, and (3) to remove exemptions on all articles, including foodgrains.

38 In view of the imperative need for augmenting the resources for the State's Third Plan, what are the several taxes now in force on which it is possible to levy a surcharge and at what rate.

39 Of the many exemptions from taxes, fees and other fiscal levies in the State now enjoyed by institutions and individuals, which are those that may be safely done away with in the interest of revenue.

40 Among the existing rates and fees levied in the several Departments of Government, are there any which are low and may be enhanced in view of the increased cost of service and of administration. Your opinion is invited in regard to enhancement in the rates, among others, cf:—

- (1) Court fees.
- (2) Record of Rights fees.
- (3) University, School and Examination fees.
- (4) Licensing fees under the several Acts.

(5) Seigniorage rates in the Forest Department.

(6) Inspection fees levied in the Industries Department under the Boilers Act and Shop Assistance Act.

(7) Audit fees in the Co-operative Department, and

(8) Rates of bus fares in the Mysore Government Road Transport Department.

41 What is your opinion regarding the feasibility and effect of imposition of a tax on the movement of goods and passengers in the State.

42 In regard to public undertakings like the Electricity Board, Mysore Government Road Transport Department, do you agree in principle that they should be required to make a contribution to general revenues on the Railway pattern, in addition to paying interest on the capital at charge.

43 How in your view can the net return from irrigation projects for which Capital and Revenue Accounts are kept, and from the several Government Industrial Concerns, be stepped up for augmenting the State's non-tax revenue.

44 Since life insurance business has been nationalised, what is the scope that exists, in your opinion, for increasing the turnover of insurance business and premium income in the field of general insurance under the State Insurance Scheme?

45 To what extent may (1) the existing rates of cesses, like the Sugar Cane Cess, Health Cess, Education Cess etc. be enhanced in the context of increasing administration costs and (2) new cesses be imposed to finance the development of coconut, arecanut and cardamom cultivation, on the lines of the Coffee and Sugar-cane cesses.

46 Overdue arrears of Land revenue assessment, Sales Tax, etc. have mounted. In what way should the administration of the respective fiscal acts be tightened up to mop up the accumulated arrears and to ensure prompt recovery of the same in future.

47 Is there any scheme of incentives for prompt payment of taxes which, in your opinion, will counter the tendency for the taxes to fall into arrears, so that the tax may be said to collect itself.

48 In regard to the undermentioned fiscal Acts in force in the State, is there any scope for raising the rates of tax, or for improvement in their administration so as to yield a larger revenue than at present:

- (1) Entertainment Tax.
- (2) Betting Tax.
- (3) Motor Vehicles Taxation Act.
- (4) Stamp Act.

49 Do you favour the acceleration of the pace of nationalisation of the Road Transport in the State for raising additional non-tax revenue.

50 In regard to the working of the Road Transport Department, what safeguards in your opinion should be adopted to plug the loopholes in the daily collections.

51 In regard to Prohibition opinion is divided between those who consider that the Prohibition policy should be pushed through to its logical conclusion of a total country-wide ban on drinking and those who would either cry a halt or favour the scrapping of prohibition. Your own candid views are invited in this behalf. Should you favour a partial prohibition scheme, please outline the pattern which you consider will answer best the revenue needs of the State Government without loss of the benefits which the working of the prohibition policy so far has conferred on the people of the State.

52 Are there any State taxes or levies the payment of which involves undue inconvenience or hardship to the assesses. If so, what are your suggestions for removing the difficulties.

53 Are there any taxes, fees or other levies the collection of which involves an expenditure out of proportion to the amount of revenue realised.

54 Is there, in your opinion, legal evasion of tax liability under any of the several taxation acts of the State the removal of which calls for amendment of the respective fiscal Acts.

55 Is there (1) laxity in the administration of any of the fiscal measures, (2) leakage of revenue, or (3) under-hand methods of assessment, as a result of which there is avoidable loss of revenue to Government.

56 Among the penal measures provided in the taxation acts, are there any which are ineffective or inadequate and need to be stiffened up to prevent (1) escape of tax liability or (2) delay in the payment of taxes.

57 Is there need, in your opinion for constituting a Revenue Audit as an integral part of the organisation of the Revenue-earning departments, or at the Government level, for a continuous review of the administration of the State's fiscal acts and for tightening up of the same to safeguard the State revenues.

58 In the last 10 years the State Government has been assigning an increasingly higher share of Land Revenue to local bodies and taking over certain items of work which constitute really the responsibility of local bodies, such as the maintenance of District Board Roads, Board High Schools, etc. Now that viable local bodies are to be set up under the recent Village Panchayat and Taluk Boards Act, what are the functions and activities of local significance now administered and financed by Government which may hereafter be transferred to the respective local bodies to make the scheme of democratic decentralisation a reality. Would in your opinion the devolution of powers and functions to local bodies result in easing the strain on Government finances and if so to what extent.

59 With statutory Village Panchayats constituted under the Local Bodies Scheme, what should be the changes in the set-up of the Development administration in the State which while harmonizing with the principle of democratic decentralisation would remove the overlapping or duplication of staff and expenditure. In particular, do you agree that the Community Development staff now functioning at the block level should hereafter be taken over by the Local bodies along with activities like Adult Education and Social Welfare.

60 Is the amount of Land Revenue assignment together with the sources of Local taxation, sufficient in your opinion to provide the finance needed by the Local bodies to meet the cost of local administration, including the functions and items of work to be transferred to them by Government? If not, what do you propose should be done to make the Local bodies financially independent and viable.

61 Do you agree that in future all credit facilities to agriculturists, short-term, medium and long-term, should be channelled only through co-operative societies, and all the industrial loans be given exclusively through the State's Industrial Finance Corporation, the budget provision under the Taccavi, Land Improvement loans and industrial loans being deleted.

62 In the State's Assets and Liabilities Statement, the former is shown to exceed the latter. Are you of the view that all the items included under assets are really of that character and may be classified as such.

63 A good part of development expenditure financed from borrowed funds (including Central Government loans) is not remunerative. Even large irrigational works and projects, though technically remunerative, have not so far been yielding a net return, and even the expenditure on their maintenance is being met out of general revenues. In view of this (1) would you suggest fixing limits for the State's public borrowing in future in relation to the ability of the General Revenue to bear the debt service charges, including annual repayments? or (2) should borrowed finance be required to be earmarked for remunerative projects only, the State's development plans being so phased as to give higher priority to projects which yield a quicker return to cover the gap until the revenue from the other projects develops.

64 Are there any specific purposes or schemes the expenditure on which should NOT, in your opinion, be met from borrowed funds but from revenue surpluses only, as a safeguard against over-borrowing or borrowing for unproductive purposes.

65 Since Central loan assistance is given for non-remunerative purposes also, is it desirable to earmark the receipt from certain remunerative projects for the repayment of such loans and interest thereon.

66 Do you suggest the setting up of any statutory machinery to control and regulate the State, public borrowing effectively?

67 Do you, in view of democratic decentralisation, consider that Local bodies may also be allowed to borrow for development purposes?

68 In regard to schemes involving peoples' participation, are there any in which the contribution by the people is only nominal? How would you raise the proportion of local contribution in future so as to minimise the State's share of the expenditure on schemes of purely local benefit.

Would you, as a matter of general policy, recommend the grant of Government assistance to local bodies in future only on the pattern of Local Development Works.

69 Are there any Loans and Advances made by the State Government to Local bodies or to individuals which carry no interest or a lower or a concessional rate? What is your opinion about laying down a rule that in future all loans and advances by Government shall bear interest at a uniform rate, worked out by averaging the Government's borrowing rates, with a small addition to cover the servicing cost.

70 A statement of loans by Government to local bodies etc., which are outstanding is laid on the table of the Legislature every year. In addition, there are outstandings of sums due by Local bodies to Government Departments for the supply of medicines etc., and for services rendered, which remain unadjusted for long periods. Per contra, it is alleged that local bodies have counter-claims against Government which have remained long unadjusted. Would you, in the interest of speedy settlement of all such outstandings, suggest a Clearing House under the supervision of the Accountant General, Mysore for a review and prompt adjustment of the net differences in cash at specific periodical intervals.
